UNITING FAITH AND KNOWLEDGE

words on The Word

by Father Amadi

Dear Parishioners,

One of the clarifying and edifying things I read this week was a heartfelt Appeal from three respected American cardinals to the President of the United States urging him to step back from threats on Greenland. In a joint Statement, Cardinal Blase Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago, Cardinal Robert McElroy, Archbishop of Washington D.C. and Cardinal Joseph Tobin, C.Ss.R., Archbishop of Newark, wrote as “pastors and citizens...[w]e renounce war as an instrument for narrow national interests and proclaim that military action must be seen only as a last resort in extreme situations, not a normal instrument of national policy.”

The statement of these three church leaders is worth reading in full. Let's continue to pray for our country and for peace in the world.

In Christ, Our Peace, Fr. Alvan Amadi

Charting A Moral Vision of American Foreign Policy

In 2026, the United States has entered into the most profound and searing debate about the moral foundation for America's actions in the world since the end of the Cold War. The events in Venezuela, Ukraine and Greenland have raised basic questions about the use of military force and the meaning of peace. The sovereign rights of nations to self-determination appear all too fragile in a world of ever greater conflagrations. The balancing of national interest with the common good is being framed within starkly polarized terms. Our country's moral role in confronting evil around the world, sustaining the right to life and human dignity, and supporting religious liberty are all under examination. And the building of just and sustainable peace, so crucial to humanity's well-being now and in the future, is being reduced to partisan categories that encourage polarization and destructive policies.

For all of these reasons, the contribution of Pope Leo in outlining a truly moral foundation for international relations to the Vatican diplomatic corps this month has provided us an enduring ethical compass for establishing the pathway for American foreign policy in the coming years.

He stated:

In our time, the weakness of multilateralism is a particular cause for concern at the international level. A diplomacy that promotes dialogue and seeks consensus among all parties is being replaced by a diplomacy based on force, by either individuals or groups of allies. War is back in vogue and a zeal for war is spreading. The principle established after the Second World War, which prohibited nations from using force to violate the borders of others, has been completely undermined. Peace is no longer sought as a gift and desirable good in itself, or in pursuit of “the establishment of the ordered universe willed by God with a more perfect form of justice among men and women.” Instead, peace is sought through weapons as a condition for asserting one's own dominion.

Pope Leo also reiterates Catholic teaching that “the protection of the right to life constitutes the indispensable foundation for every other human right” and that abortion and euthanasia are destructive of that right. He points to the need for international aid to safeguard the most central elements of human dignity, which are under assault because of the movement by wealthy nations to reduce or eliminate their contributions to humanitarian foreign assistance programs. Finally, the Holy Father points to the increasing violations of conscience and religious freedom in the name of an ideological or religious purity that crushes freedom itself.

As pastors and citizens, we embrace this vision for the establishment of a genuinely moral foreign policy for our nation. We seek to build a truly just and lasting peace, that peace which Jesus proclaimed in the Gospel. We renounce war as an instrument for narrow national interests and proclaim that military action must be seen only as a last resort in extreme situations, not a normal instrument of national policy. We seek a foreign policy that respects and advances the right to human life, religious liberty, and the enhancement of human dignity throughout the world, especially through economic assistance.

Our nation's debate on the moral foundation for American policy is beset by polarization, partisanship, and narrow economic and social interests. Pope Leo has given us the prism through which to raise it to a much higher level. We will preach, teach, and advocate in the coming months to make that higher level possible.

Signed,

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago
Cardinal Robert W. McElroy, Archbishop of Washington
Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R., Archbishop of Newark

Heaven on Earth by Deacon Dave Scheuer

Deacon Dave Scheuer has experienced what could be described as mystical or supernatural occurrences with the Eucharist for many years. After a long discernment, he has been encouraged by Bishop David Ricken to share his encounters throughout the Diocese. You'll be amazed by his story.

Share Jesus Years

On January 11 Bishop Ricken formally proclaimed his pastoral invitation "Sent on a Mission: A Pastoral Invitation to Share Jesus with Others." A few print copies are available by request at each parish office, and it can also be accessed on the diocesan website at dioc.io/sent.

"Prayer to the Holy Spirit"

Bishop Ricken is calling upon the entire diocese to entrust ourselves to the Holy Spirit in a profound way. Beginning next weekend (Jan 31/Feb 1) in a diocesan act of trust and unity in the Holy Spirit, over the next three years the faithful will pray the "Prayer to the Holy Spirit" together at every weekend Mass following the Universal Prayer (intercessions). The prayer cards will be provided in the pews.

Thank You

A heartfelt thank you for all the gifts/cards I received during the Christmas season. I am grateful to be part of this faith community and will remember you in my prayers.
~Deacon Pat

Heartfelt Thanks

You really brought the holiday spirit to life – not just with the decorations, but with your helping hands and good cheer! Thank you for making setup/takedown a joyful tradition instead of a not-so-fun chore. To Dawn Voland – thank you for keeping the poinsettias and flowers watered and looking lovely. To Dave, our custodian – many thanks for all you did to make all the tasks easier for us, we appreciate it. May God bless you all!

Bring in your Palms

Feel free to bring your palms to one of our linked parishes so they can be burned to help create ashes for our Ash Wednesday liturgies.

Fish Fry

Our 14th Annual Fish Fry will be 'to go only' on Friday, March 6 from 11 am—6:30 pm. The lunch hour business delivery and pick up is a popular time so our pick up hours start at 11 am. See the sign up sheets in the narthex for grocery items that are needed: 22 jars of Miracle Whip (gallon size) and 26 pounds of butter. We also have a sign up sheet if you can donate a torte or two.

There is an opportunity to sponsor supplies; the to go containers ($160), the dessert boxes ($55), the tartar sauce cups ($45) and disposable silverware packets ($70) all have to be purchased. Want to help us cover the cost of the fish with a monetary donation? Feel free to drop it in the collection basket in an envelope labeled fish fry.
