Liturgical Life

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples the parable of the wicked servant who failed to forgive the debts of others, despite receiving mercy for his own debt.

Mercy You Can Feel

"You qualify for forgiveness," I heard the woman on the other end of the phone tell me, and I surprised myself by starting to weep.

I had called the hospital system's financial services department to set up a payment plan on a balance I owed after having some unexpected scans and tests. I was hoping to minimize the dent our family's savings took — transform one devastating wallop into a series of more easily absorbed blows, so to speak.

Imagine my surprise when I realized the hospital was pulling its punch. If you have ever had a financial debt forgiven, you know the relief that came over me in that moment.

It wasn't until a little later that the guilt set in. I know so many people who have medical debt. Why was I able to get out of paying, and they were not?

But the cold, hard truth is that I didn't "get out" of anything. My insurance, for which I pay, had given the hospital enough money to cover the true cost of the procedures.

That balance would merely have increased the hospital's profit.

Make no mistake: capitalism does not forgive.

If you describe the Sacrament of Reconciliation to someone unfamiliar with theology, chances are they'll think God is a chump. "You get to go in, say you're sorry, and leave — and everything's just fine?" someone once asked me in disbelief.

Well, yeah. That's forgiveness.

Real mercy cannot be budgeted. It must be given recklessly, extravagantly, against all reason. It must cost the giver. It must scandalize any accountant worth his salt. And no one "qualifies."

If I can't wrap my head around the idea, it might mean I'm stuck in a for-profit paradigm of justice. It might just mean that I need to engage more in real mercy. Mercy I can feel.

Ordination Celebration

This weekend we celebrate along with Tom & Mary Spaeth and their family as they attend the Ordination of their son Justin to the Diaconate in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. Saturday morning September 12 Justin was ordained at St. Monica's Church in Whitefish Bay and then he assisted at Mass as a Deacon for the first time at St. John the Evangelist Parish in Kohler on Saturday afternoon September 12 at 4:00pm.

Justin graduated from SS. Peter & Paul Catholic Grade School in 1997. He will be serving the Parishes of St. John the Evangelist in Kohler and Blessed Trinity Parish in Sheboygan Falls. Please keep him in your prayers as he begins this blessed ministry.

Congratulations Dcn Justin and God's blessings on your diaconate Ministry!

Scrip

Before you head out for a bite tonight,

Pick up some scrip and do it right!

Our box is packed, the choices grand,

With all the favorites in the land.

Grab your dining cards before you go,

And watch your support and savings grow!

We've got a large inventory of restaurants, so why not use scrip to pay your bill? Stop in and pick up scrip during normal office hours, or after weekend mass.

Tuckpointing Project

Work will begin soon on the church chimney and southern brickwork that needs to be addressed. We've been accepting donations to cover the cost of this project, as well as painting inside the church west hallway in late fall, and as of Sept 2 we have $27,805 towards the estimated $40,000 cost of both projects. While these projects are not glamorous, they are essential.

If you'd like to help support these projects, donations can be mailed or dropped off at the office or placed in the collection during our weekend mass. Unless otherwise specified by law, all contributions are tax deductible

Rays of Hope Community Food Pantry

Rays of Hope helps over 80 families a month. Bins are at the side entrances and in the narthex under the TV to collect items for them.

Watch the sale flyers and grab something on sale for the week. This week's sale flyer for Piggly Wiggly has Cheerios 2/$6. That's a great choice.

HOLY ROSARY

Scrip

Going out for that Friday night fish fry? By using scrip gift cards, you can help support our parish at the same time. Locally, we carry Altona, Schwarz's, Blanck's, Riverview and Fork & Dagger. By using scrip, these businesses donate between 5 and 10% back to our parishes. Bon Appetit!

Fall Festival-September 14th

Starting September 14th sign-up sheets for food items, etc. will be in each wing of church. We appreciate any and all donations. Monetary donations are greatly appreciated to help offset the cost of the meat. This is our Parish's biggest fundraiser and we need your help. There are also sign-up sheets for making tortes. We know we have great bakers in our parish. Please consider making a torte or two. Finally, don't forget to pick up your raffle tickets, they are located in the SOUTH Wing of church (we are not allowed to mail tickets). If we can all sell at least five tickets, it will greatly help our cause. – Thank you so much!

Attention Parish Bakers

We will again be selling peanut squares at the Fall Festival. We will need approximately 35 sponge cakes. You can bake cakes, cut into 21 pieces, then freeze. On September 24th, you can bring cakes to our parish kitchen. If you can bake a cake and/or help with frosting and rolling, please contact Barb at 920-286-0596 or Ann at 920-652-4365. Any help is greatly appreciated.

Additional Mass Intentions Available

With Holy Rosary celebrating additional Masses on the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th (5th, if applicable) Friday of each month. There are still Mass intentions for those Friday's honoring loved ones are available for a $20 offering. Contact the parish office to request yours.

Choir Practice – Holy Rosary

Choir practice at Holy Rosary is scheduled on Monday nights, beginning September 14th at 6:15 pm. Whether you are a seasoned vocalist or simply love to sing, we warmly invite you to share your musical gifts with our community. All are welcome to join, no prior experience is required—just a desire to sing and praise together.

Helping Hands Food Pantry

Every third Friday through October, the Helping Hands Food Pantry will have a special table available for fresh garden produce. If you have extra fruits, vegetables, or herbs from your garden, this is a wonderful opportunity to share them with neighbors in need. Together, we can make sure nothing goes to waste and everyone has access to healthy, fresh food. The Helping Hands Food Pantry is also in need of more of the following items: ketchup, mustard, kleenex, grape jelly, strawberry jam, and boxed cereals.

ST. ANN

Roof Meeting

There will be a roof replacement meeting on Thursday, September 24 at 6:30 pm in the church basement. Come to hear the details of all bids as well as funding options.

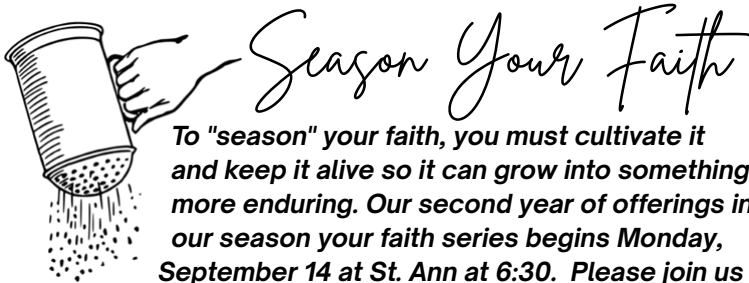

Scrip

Stop at the scrip box and pick up some gas cards to get you where you're going. And support your parish at the same time. Scrip is available in the back of church after Mass.

Pantry Collections

St. Ann collects non-perishable food items for the Helping Hands Food Pantry on the 1st weekend of each month. If everyone could bring one thing a week, imagine how many people we could help.

They are in need of the following items: paper products, peanut butter, jams and jellies, macaroni & cheese, baked beans, ketchup and hearty soups. Thanks for your support.

To "season" your faith, you must cultivate it and keep it alive so it can grow into something more enduring. Our second year of offerings in our season your faith series begins Monday, September 14 at St. Ann at 6:30. Please join us as we kick off the new lineup. Our guest speaker will be Fr. Rick Wendell from West Bend who will talk about his life-changing conversion and experience of death.

KICKOFF RALLY

Join us to Kick Off the fall 40 Days for Life campaign on Sunday, September 20, 4:00 PM at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 833 Center Avenue, Sheboygan.

A local couple, Sonia and Tyson Weber, will be our guest speakers. Their story is full of reminders that the past does not have to define your future, brokenness does not have the final say, and there is always hope in Jesus.

The peaceful, prayerful vigil from the sidewalk outside Planned Parenthood will begin Wednesday, September 23, 7 a.m.-7 p.m., for forty consecutive days. Sign up to pray for an end to abortion by visiting www.40daysforlife.com. Contact Germaine 920-918-2310 or Gina 920-917-9324.
