words on The Word

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) gathered for their Fall Plenary Assembly in Baltimore, the bishops issued a Special Message addressing their concern for the evolving situation impacting immigrants in the United States. It marked the first time in twelve years the USCCB invoked this particularly urgent way of speaking as a body of bishops. The last one issued in 2013 was in response to the federal government's contraceptive mandate.

Under the regulations pertaining to statements and publications of the Conference, a "Special Message" may only be issued at plenary assemblies, and they are statements which the President of the Conference, the Administrative Committee, or the general membership consider to be appropriate in view of the circumstances at the time. To show the consensus of the body, a Special Message must receive two-thirds of the Conference members present and voting at the plenary in order to pass.

The full text of the bishops' Special Pastoral Message follows:

As pastors, we the bishops of the United States are bound to our people by ties of communion and compassion in Our Lord Jesus Christ. We are disturbed when we see among our people a climate of fear and anxiety around questions of profiling and immigration enforcement. We are saddened by the state of contemporary debate and the vilification of immigrants. We are concerned about the conditions in detention centers and the lack of access to pastoral care. We lament that some immigrants in the United States have arbitrarily lost their legal status. We are troubled by threats against the sanctity of houses of worship and the special nature of hospitals and schools. We are grieved when we meet parents who fear being detained when taking their children to school and when we try to console family members who have already been separated from their loved ones.

Despite obstacles and prejudices, generations of immigrants have made enormous contributions to the well-being of our nation. We as Catholic bishops love our country and pray for its peace and prosperity. For this very reason, we feel compelled now in this environment to raise our voices in defense of God-given human dignity.

Catholic teaching exhorts nations to recognize the fundamental dignity of all persons, including immigrants. We bishops advocate for a meaningful reform of our nation's immigration laws and procedures. Human dignity and national security are not in conflict. Both are possible if people of good will work together.

We recognize that nations have a responsibility to regulate their borders and establish a just and orderly immigration system for the sake of the common good. Without such processes, immigrants face the risk of trafficking and other forms of exploitation. Safe and legal pathways serve as an antidote to such risks.

The Church's teaching rests on the foundational concern for the human person, as created in the image and likeness of God (Genesis 1:27). As pastors, we look to Sacred Scripture and the example of the Lord Himself, where we find the wisdom of God's compassion. The priority of the Lord, as the Prophets remind us, is for those who are most vulnerable: the widow, the orphan, the poor, and the stranger (Zechariah 7:10). In the Lord Jesus, we see the One who became poor for our sake (2 Corinthians 8:9), we see the Good Samaritan who lifts us from the dust (Luke 10:30-37), and we see the One who is found in the least of these (Matthew 25). The Church's concern for neighbor and our concern here for immigrants is a response to the Lord's command to love as He has loved us (John 13:34).

To our immigrant brothers and sisters, we stand with you in your suffering, since, when one member suffers, all suffer (cf. 1 Corinthians 12:26). You are not alone!

We note with gratitude that so many of our clergy, consecrated religious, and lay faithful already accompany and assist immigrants in meeting their basic human needs. We urge all people of good will to continue and expand such efforts.

We oppose the indiscriminate mass deportation of people. We pray for an end to dehumanizing rhetoric and violence, whether directed at immigrants or at law enforcement. We pray that the Lord may guide the leaders of our nation, and we are grateful for past and present opportunities to dialogue with public and elected officials. In this dialogue, we will continue to advocate for meaningful immigration reform.

As disciples of the Lord, we remain men and women of hope, and hope does not disappoint!
(cf. Romans 5:5)

May the mantle of Our Lady of Guadalupe enfold us all in her maternal and loving care and draw us ever closer to the heart of Christ.

Thanksgiving

Join us for our Thanksgiving Mass at St. Ann at 8:30 am on Thanksgiving Day. They will be collecting pantry items at mass on Thanksgiving.

The parish offices will be closed on Thursday & Friday, November 27-28, 2025, to celebrate and thank our Lord for His many blessings. Happy Thanksgiving!

Chilton Thanksgiving Day Express Thursday, Nov 27

Meal orders must be made by calling and/or leaving a voicemail message at (920) 309-2420 – Monday through Friday, 9:00am-3:00pm; or by email at ThxExpress@yahoo.com. The deadline to place an order is Tuesday, November 25 at 3pm. Those placing meal orders must provide:

- Full name, phone number & street address (they do deliver to New Holstein & Kiel)
  - Number of meals, special directions/instructions
- Remember to confirm with the individual that Thanksgiving meals will be delivered to their residence, so they are home to receive them.

-How to volunteer: volunteers can begin arriving at the Chilton Eagles any time after 9 am. Meal assembly begins around 10 am with clean-up to follow once all meals are out for delivery. Clean-up is usually done by 2 pm, and the Committee stresses that clean-up is where volunteer assistance is needed most.

Sponsor a Divine Savior Classroom Emergency Bag

Divine Savior is updating their emergency resources. Each classroom will be equipped with an emergency bag with needed resources in case an emergency arises. These resources include flashlights, first aid kits, reflective vests, and other needed materials. We are offering people the ability to sponsor a classroom bag. We are asking for a donation of $50 to cover the costs of each bag and so far we have donations for 10 bags. Thank you! We are still looking for donations for 5 more. Want to sponsor a bag? Donations can be mailed or dropped off at the school office.

Divine Savior Pantry Collection

Divine Savior School is running a Domino Donation Rally through Monday, Nov 24th.

Please bring in any boxed, nonperishable food that the 7th grade class will use to build a chain reaction domino rally (just like knocking down dominoes!). A collection box will be in the breezeway between the church and school.

We will run the domino rally after church on Tuesday Nov 25th in the gym. The more food that is donated the larger the rally! We will accept all food.

Parishioners are welcomed to attend! All food will be donated to the Holy Rosary Pantry.

Thanks Giving

Especially in the month of thanks and giving we are collecting non-perishable food items and paper product for the Rays of Hope Kiel Community Pantry, (SSPP) and the New Holstein Helping Hands Food Pantry (Holy Rosary and St. Ann). You can bring your items with you to church anytime during the month and place them in the baskets/bins at each parish.

SS. Peter & Paul envelope packs have a specific envelope for Thanksgiving, and money from those envelopes will be given to the Kiel SVdP. All other donations will be given to the pantries.

Thanksgiving Meals

SS. Peter & Paul is teaming up with Badger's Den to offer a simple, prepackaged Thanksgiving meal to anyone, at no charge. If you feel that you, a family member, a friend, or a neighbor would enjoy a meal, for any reason at all, please give the Rectory a call (920-894-3553) by Monday, November 24. Delivery is Thanksgiving Day between 9-10:30 am.

Christmas Love Lights

You are invited to sponsor a string of lights in honor or memory of a loved one that will decorate downtown Kiel and along the river. Pink Love Lights forms, organized by the Kiel River Walk, can be found on the table under the Rose Window in the Narthex with all the details. Deadline is Monday, December 1st.

Book of Remembrance

As is our custom in the month of November, we remember our loved ones who have passed on to the Kingdom of God. Our Book of Remembrance will be located at the front of church. Feel free to include any names you would like remembered in prayer. The book will remain near the altar during the month, allowing the community to hold our loved ones in prayer.

Decorating Help Needed

Do you have a knack for design or just enjoy making things look nice? Our church needs your help! We're looking for volunteers to join our decorating committee and help keep our sanctuary and common areas welcoming and inspiring throughout the seasons.

When: As needed, for seasonal and special event transitions. In particular, for the upcoming Christmas season.

Commitment: A few hours on Saturdays in December.

How to get involved: Please contact Lynne Becker or Kim in the office to get the details.

Your unique gifts can help create a warm and worshipful environment for everyone who walks through our doors!

Scrip News

We have three $250 cards for Target that were ordered by mistake. If anyone does some shopping there and could buy one, that would help out the scrip program tremendously. The card doesn't have to be used up at one time, it will carry a balance for however long it takes. Many restaurants & businesses are charging credit card fees for costs incurred for processing credit card payments. Want to avoid that? Use scrip. Scrip gift cards are NOT charged a fee when they are used. They are just like cash. In fact, SS. Peter & Paul actually gets a discount when we buy scrip gift cards.

Scrip is sold in the office during the weekly office hours. You can call or email Kim your order if you want and it'll be ready for you, no waiting if you're in a hurry. It is also sold after the weekend Mass down in Voland Hall.
