22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." - Lk 14:14

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1999, 1970 CCC, ILPI

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: I think, if we're being really honest, we all expect "payment" for being a good person. We want God to give us what we ask. We want people to treat us a certain way. But what if we expected absolutely nothing?

What Did You Expect?

Moms have a lot of jobs, and it's usually the case that none of them pay very well.

My work as a chef? Zero compensation, and my clientele are very rarely pleased with my efforts. My role as a teacher, a maid, a chauffeur, a therapist — same deal. Ironically, these jobs consume so much of my time that I am constricted in my work as a writer — the only sphere where I do actually garner any earnings.

It is so easy to grumble about all of this, and I do it all the time. Because despite the fact that I know better, I expect repayment for my good deeds. Deep in my soul, I expect it.

That's a huge problem.

In my defense, I don't think this is a very uncommon thing. I think, if we're being really honest, we all expect "payment" for being a good person. We want God to give us what we ask. We want people to treat us a certain way. We want our day to go smoothly. We expect these things as a matter of course; we feel entitled to them, and we become grumpy when we are denied them. I worked so hard. I gave so much. What was it all even for?

But what if we expected absolutely nothing?

When you hold a banquet, Jesus said, invite those who cannot return the favor. Give not just without the expectation of repayment, but without the possibility of it.

Think about that for a minute. What does that even look like — no possibility of payment?

I know what that looks like in my own life. It's giving more to the literal poor, yes, but it's also giving more — and more happily, more lovingly — when I cook and clean and drive and write and console. It's not lamenting that no one appreciates me — it's actually hoping no one does.

It's learning to love the lowest place at the table. Because in the lowest place, we are closest to God.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Does chewing gum break the fast before Communion?

Answer:

If you look in Canon Law or in the Catechism, there is no mention of chewing gum. I guess it does not rate the attention of the universal church! The Church requires us to fast for one hour before we receive the Eucharist. Basically, we are to refrain from food and drink, not including water or medicine. There are also exceptions for people who are ill. Overall, the fast is intended for us to prepare ourselves to receive the Eucharist and in some small way to literally as well as spiritually hunger for what we are about to receive. Chewing gum, while not really food, does at least break the spirit of the fast. Besides that, it is a distraction and rude. What do you do with the gum when it is time to receive Communion? People have actually come to the altar chewing away, oblivious to what they were doing or who they were receiving. At best, it is distracting and irreverent. At worst, it adds a barrier to giving our best to receiving God's best.

Mass Schedule Change

Pilgrimage

The theme for the Holy Year 2025 is "Pilgrims of Hope." This Jubilee year, which began on December 24, 2024, and ends on January 6, 2026, encourages Catholics to embrace hope in Christ and renew their faith journey. Pope Francis has called upon Catholics to be "pilgrims of hope," emphasizing the importance of faith, spiritual renewal, and the promise of hope in God. Join us for our Tri-Parish Pilgrimage to the National Shrine of our Lady of Champion on Saturday, October 4. Cost is $40, which includes coach bus, box lunch, confession, Mass and a Rosary Procession. Call your parish for details.

Friends of the Poor Walk

Lace up those sneakers and get pledges for St. Vincent de Paul annual Friends of the Poor Walk on September 20, 2025. The walk begins at Holy Rosary and continues along the Hwy 57 path and back to New Holstein. Great for the family or a group of friends. Forms can be found in the back of each church.

Do your part to defend and protect the sanctity of human life by participating in the Fall 2025 40 Days for Life peaceful, prayerful campaign. Saves babies and support vulnerable women by offering HOPE to those contemplating or recovering from an abortion.

Signs are provided along with information about Anchor of Hope where free services are available. It's easy. It's important. It's live-giving. The campaign starts Wednesday, September 24. Attend a Kick-Off Rally at the KC Hall in Sheboygan on Sunday, September 21 at 4 p.m. to learn more. Or contact Germaine 920-918-2310 or Gina 920-917-9324.

Baptism

Congratulations to the Lilla family on the baptism of their son Elijah Ulrich. May the life of Christ, into which he was immersed this weekend, always surround and live within him!

Rosary

The Rosary group meets on Sunday nights at 6 pm to pray the rosary in church in front of Mary, except this Sunday, August 31, when they will not meet. We invite you to find some time that day to pray the rosary yourself.

Hail Mary, full of grace; the Lord is with thee. Blessed are thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Holy Dusters

Holy Dusters is a group of volunteers who do the general cleaning of the church on the 2nd Thursday of the month starting at 8 am. All supplies are furnished. Would you be willing to help clean the house of God? We always need more help. Feel free to join us on the 2nd Thursday of the month.

Mass Intentions

Mass intentions for 2026 are now being accepted. There are a few Tuesday dates available in 2025, otherwise the new dates start in January 2025. Feel free to reach out to Kim to schedule a date. The cost is $20.

Cemetery Sexton

I'm happy to announce that Hannah Volland is the new cemetery sexton. Hannah grew up in our parish. Feel free to reach out to her with any cemetery concerns. 920-242-7583

Census

A letter was sent to all our registered parishioners a few weeks ago that asks you to return the completed form to the parish office. If you didn't get a letter, copies can be found in the letter bin by the Fremont Street doors. We appreciate your cooperation.

Priesthood Sunday

Priesthood Sunday is a day for the Catholic faithful in to honor and show appreciation for diocesan priests and this year it falls on the last Sunday of September. It's a time to thank priests for their service, spiritual guidance, and central role in celebrating Mass and the sacraments. I know Father is a coffee lover, and I'd like to present him with a nice basket of coffee for the Keurig coffee maker we have here. If you want to help fill the basket, feel free to bring a box of Keurig K-cups to the office in Kiel. (Pretty sure he likes the non-flavored regular coffee.) I'll keep them hidden until the end of the month, then surprise him with a basket full of coffee.

Scrip

Re-distributing a percentage of your family budget to the Church can cost you literally nothing and it really adds up. Why not give it a try if you aren't a scrip user? Buy gas for a month using Scrip.

Scrip is sold in the office during the weekly office hours. You can call or email Kim your order if you want and it'll be ready for you, no waiting if you're in a hurry. It is also sold after the weekend Mass down in Volland Hall.
