(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

In today's Gospel reading, we hear Jesus proclaim the Beatitudes, promising the reward of Heaven to those who persevere in virtue.

The Survivors

"I'm no saint."

We hear people say this all the time, and what they usually mean is this: "I've made mistakes." Well, congratulations! You have taken that first crucial step to sainthood. You're well on your way!

A saint is not a person with fewer-than-average mistakes. A saint is a person with greater-than-average hope.

What is hope? Hope is certainty in the promises of God over the merits of man. Hope is what makes a Christian rejoice when he hears the litany of earthly trials described in the Beatitudes, because hope makes him see not the trials but the grace promised through them.

Hope remembers, always, that God is in the business of bringing life from death.

"These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress." (Rev. 7:14) This is how we hear the saints described in the Book of Revelation. We do not hear: "These are the ones who were perfect. These are the ones who had no faults. These are the ones who made good choices."

No — these are the ones who survived.

We are all buried in the rubble heap of sin and death. Many of us despair and cry, "We cannot climb out!" The saint is the one who has the hope to answer, "But Someone is coming. Just wait." The saint is the one who looks for the sliver of light, who reaches for it even when everyone else dismisses it as illusion.

Follow the saints. They know how to survive.

SS. PETER & PAUL

Book of Remembrance

As is our custom in the month of November, we remember our loved ones who have passed on to the Kingdom of God. Our Book of Remembrance will be located at the front of church. Feel free to include any names you would like remembered in prayer. The book will remain near the altar during the month, allowing the community to hold our loved ones in prayer.

Collection for the Food Pantry

This year our Thanksgiving Mass is at SS. Peter & Paul at 8:30 am on Thanksgiving Day. Especially in the month of thanks and giving, November, we will be collecting non-perishable food items and paper product for the Kiel Community Pantry, Rays of Hope. You can bring your items with you to church anytime during the month and place them in the baskets at the side entrances and in the narthex.

As is our custom here at SS. Peter & Paul, the monetary collection on Thanksgiving Day will be given SVdP.

Thanksgiving Meals

SS. Peter & Paul is teaming up with Badger's Den and the Kiel Community to offer a simple, prepackaged Thanksgiving meal to anyone, at no charge. If you feel that you, a family member, a friend, or a neighbor would enjoy a meal, for any reason at all, please give the Rectory a call (920-894-3553). Delivery day & time is not yet determined.

Mass of Remembrance

We will remember in a special way those who have passed away within the last year during the regular Sunday liturgy on November 8 at 10 am. All parishioners are welcome to join us for this special mass.

Scrip

$crip is sold in the office during the weekly office hours. You can call or email Kim your order if you want and it'll be ready for you, no waiting if you're in a hurry. It is also sold after the weekend Mass down in Voland Hall.

Love Lights

Once again this year, the Kiel River Walk District is giving the Kiel community the opportunity to remember loved ones by dedicating Christmas lights in their honor or memory. These lights will shine downtown throughout the holiday season, adding to the charm of our downtown while giving families a special way to remember those they love. Pick up a flyer found on the back table in the narthex to participate.

HOLY ROSARY

In Sympathy

Please pray for Judith Hoffmann, who passed away on October 22, 2026. May God grant her eternal peace and surround the Hoffmann family with His strength, comfort, and grace during this difficult time. Please keep them all in your thoughts and prayers.

Remembrance Mass

Our Remembrance Mass will be on Saturday November 7th during the 4:00 PM Mass. Please join us in remembering the loved ones who have passed away during the last year. After mass, everyone is welcome to join us for a social in Spartan Hall.

Fall Festival

The 2026 Holy Rosary Fall Festival is in the books. We served 762 drive-thru meals and 109 nursing home meals for a total of 871 dinners. Once all bills are paid the final profit results will be posted.

A huge thank you goes out to the many volunteers and bakers. Divine Savior families, you stepped up for us and we are so grateful to all of you for helping. A special thank you to the Fall Festival Committee: Mary Jane Lorenz, Ann Koenigs, Barb Rameker, Bob and Jayette Marsicek, Carol Johnson, Mary and Dave Whorrall, Patty Buechel, and the Knights of Columbus. Your knowledge and experience are invaluable. A shout out must go to our 70, 80, and yes 90+ year old volunteers. You truly are the "backbone" of our parish.

After much thought and reflection, we have decided to step away from the responsibility of being Chairpersons for this fundraiser. We cannot thank all of you enough for the support you have given us over the years. We have lots of notes and will help the new chair people out in any way that we can.

God bless all of you! Dan and Chris Schirmer

Scrip

Hard to believe but Christmas is less than two months away. Toyland opened at Fleet Farm for those special gifts from Mom and Dad or Grandma and Grandpa. Give scrip a try!

Choir Practice

Choir practice at Holy Rosary is scheduled on Monday nights at 6:15 pm. All are welcome to join; no prior experience is required—just a desire to sing and praise together.

Helping Hands Food Pantry

The Helping Hands Food Pantry is in need of more of the following items: ketchup, mustard, kleenex, grape jelly, strawberry jam, and boxed cereals.

ST. ANN

St. Ann Parish Fall Dinner

Please join us next Sunday, November 8th, for our Beef Tips and Ham Fall Dinner. Our drive-thru dinner will be available from 10:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., or when the food sells out. In addition to the beef tips and ham, the dinner includes mashed potatoes, carrots, coleslaw, dinner roll, and dessert, for only $17.

HELP NEEDED: Sign-up sheets are in the main entrance for:
Saturday morning (8 a.m.) Peel potatoes, carrots and food prep.
Sunday morning in the kitchen and filling orders.
Desserts-please sign up if you can bring tortes or pies for the event.

CASH DONATIONS are welcome to help offset dinner costs. Please put your donation in an envelope marked "St. Ann Fall Dinner Donation," and drop it in the weekly collection. Thank you!

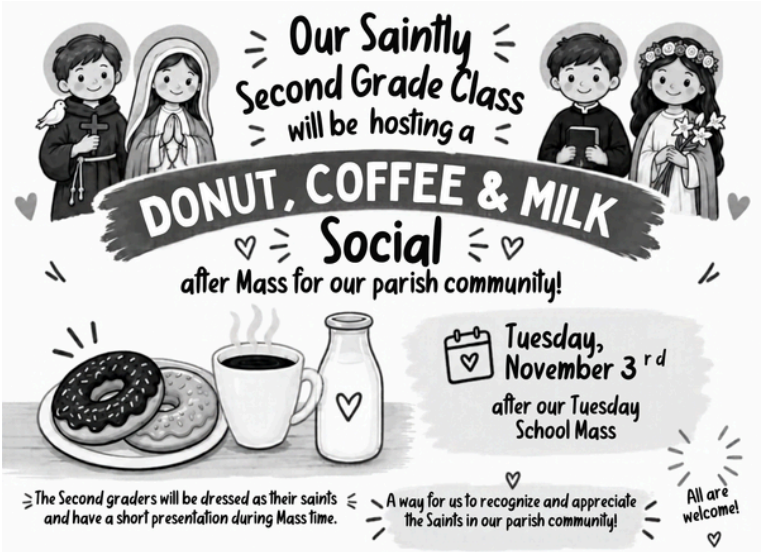

GIFT CARD WINNERS: We will be giving away 3 gift cards to either Altona, Kwik Trip or Schwarz's. Cards will be randomly placed into dinner bags. Whether you are volunteering to help or donating, thank you!

St. Ann Parish Fall Raffle

Raffle tickets are available to sell, and parishioners are asked to pick them up in the church entry.
Anyone wishing to purchase raffle tickets should contact a St. Ann parishioner or tickets are also available in the Holy Rosary and SSPP church offices.

Pantry Collections

St. Ann collects non-perishable food items for the Helping Hands Food Pantry on the 1st weekend of each month, or put it in the bin whenever you bring it in.
They are in need of the following items: paper products, peanut butter, jams and jellies, macaroni & cheese, baked beans, ketchup and hearty soups. Thanks for your support.

Inspiration of the Week

Got a broken heart? Rejoice! An empty bank account? Rejoice! Are you undervalued, overlooked? Rejoice! In the Beatitudes, Jesus offers more than just sweet sayings. He offers a challenge, one we can only meet if he is at our side: rejoice!

SEASON YOUR FAITH

Join us on Monday, November 9 at 6:30 at Holy Rosary for the next installment of our ongoing Season Your Faith speaker series featuring Kathleen McCarthy, who will lead an open and supportive discussion on Grief Support.
Grief is a deeply personal journey, but you do not have to walk it alone. Whether you are currently grieving a loss or looking for ways to support a loved one, this talk will be helpful.

TWO DAYS, ONE BEAUTIFUL TRUTH

Together, these celebrations illuminate what the Church calls the Communion of Saints: the spiritual union of the faithful on earth, the souls undergoing purification, and the saints in heaven. Although separated by death, we remain united in Christ.

All Saints' Day; Celebrating Those Who Are in Heaven

All Saints' Day is a solemnity honoring everyone who has attained heaven—not only the saints officially canonized by the Church, but also the countless holy men, women, and children whose names are known to God alone.
It reminds us that holiness is not reserved for a select few. Every one of us is called to become a saint. And the saints are not merely figures from the distant past. They are living members of Christ's Body who intercede for us before God.
At Mass, we acknowledge this heavenly communion when we join the angels and saints in singing:"Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts..." [THE SANCTUS]
This hymn reminds us that our earthly worship is united with the worship of heaven. At every Mass, we join a heavenly chorus that never ceases to praise God.

All Souls' Day; Praying for Those Who Have Died

The following day, the Church commemorates all the faithful departed, particularly those undergoing purification before entering the fullness of heaven. Unlike All Saints' Day, when we celebrate those already enjoying the beatific vision, All Souls' Day is especially dedicated to praying for the dead. But why do Catholics pray for the dead? Because death does not sever the bonds of charity that unite the members of Christ's Body. The Church teaches that our prayers, especially the offering of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, can assist the souls undergoing purification.
At every Mass, the priest prays for the faithful departed. In prayer he asks God to:
"Remember also our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection..." [EUCHARISTIC PRAYER II]
These words remind us that the Mass is not only a celebration for those gathered inside the church. Its spiritual benefits extend beyond the visible congregation.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

Today is the 40th day of our fall 40 Days for Life campaign. Thank you to those who have prayed for unborn babies, moms, dads and families. This 40-day period of peaceful prayer is ending, but we continue to advocate for the right to life for God's most vulnerable—infants in their mothers' wombs. Between now and the Lent 40-day campaign, you can sign up for vigil hours during the hours/days Planned Parenthood is open---Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. The weather will not be as pleasant throughout the winter but your presence will have even more impact.
I believe I shall see the Lord's goodness in the land of the living. Wait for the Lord, take courage; be stouthearted, wait for the Lord! Psalm 27:13-14.
Use the same website to sign up for 365 hours: www.40daysforlife.com/sheboygan. Contact Germaine 920-918-2310 or Gina 920-917-9324 with questions or if you need a sign.
