5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and everyone that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit." - Jn 15:1-2

All are welcome

What does it mean to proclaim that in the church “All are welcome”? This question arises in the context of a recent declaration on human dignity from the Vatican called ‘Dignitas Infinita’ (Infinite Dignity). The document issued by the Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith with the approval Pope Francis, declared that the human being, by the fact of being created by a loving God (and independent of any accomplishment or lack thereof), possesses an infinite dignity that can never be taken away. “Every human person possesses an infinite dignity, inalienably grounded in his or her very being, which prevails in and beyond every circumstance, state, or situation the person may ever encounter. This principle, which is fully recognizable even by reason alone, underlies the primacy of the human person and the protection of human rights. The Church resolutely reiterates and confirms the ontological dignity of the human person, created in the image and likeness of God and redeemed in Jesus Christ. From this truth, the Church draws the reasons for her commitment to the weak and those less endowed with power, always insisting on the primacy of the human person and the defense of his or her dignity beyond every circumstance” (DI, 1).

This dignity bestowed by a loving Creator-God remains through all the stages of life from the moment of conception to natural death and every stage in between. As a result of this infinity dignity, the human person possesses a unique and transcendent value. This intrinsic dignity is the foundation for human rights enshrined in the United Nations 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

In Dignitas Infinita, Pope Francis also criticizes everything that undermines the dignity of human beings. These include all offences against life “such as murder, genocide, abortion, euthanasia, and willful suicide.” Other egregious violations of human dignity called out were “all violations of the integrity of the human person, such as mutilation, physical and mental torture, undue psychological pressures” (DI, 34). Others include “subhuman living conditions, arbitrary imprisonment, deportation, slavery, prostitution, the selling of women and children, degrading working conditions where individuals are treated as mere tools for profit rather than free and responsible persons. Here, one should also mention the death penalty, for this also violates the inalienable dignity of every person, regardless of the circumstances.” The list of things that degrade human dignity continues: poverty, war, sexual abuse, human trafficking, violence against women, digital violence, surrogacy, sex change and gender theory. As Cardinal Wilton Gregory of Washington DC says, it is a “welcome summation” of church teaching on moral, social and doctrinal issues.

Pope Francis has made himself abundantly clear that the Church is a home for all, and that nobody should feel excluded from the embrace of God’s mercy, that God never tires of forgiving us, although we might be tired of asking for forgiveness. So yes, all are welcome to experience God’s tender mercies, a mercy that is never earned or aggressively demanded on one’s own terms but always received as a gracious and unmerited gift. Like any good father, God does not give us everything we want all of the time. This is because, good parents know that sometimes children ask for things that will ultimately harm them. Following this example, the Church also does not say ‘yes’ to every single desire of the human heart. As mother and teacher, the Church teaches the truth that sets us free and leads her children in gradual steps to the fullness of truth in the person of Christ, guided by the Holy Spirit. By striving to model our lives, however imperfectly on this truth, our souls are nourished. To teach otherwise, is to deceive and to disrespect all those who hunger and thirst for truth, feeding them with junk food which ultimately harms the body.

In Mitch Albom’s fascinating and evocative novel, The Little Liars, an unnamed character speaking as if this character personifies the truth, makes this astute observation. “Sometimes, I watch people eat. I find it interesting. Food is that substance that keeps you alive, so I would think you would choose the kind that does you the most good. Instead, you choose what pleases the palate. I see you at buffet restaurants, slapping on some of this, some of that, ignoring the rest, even if you know it is more healthful. I notice this, because it is what you do with me. You choose a sliver of Truth here, a sliver there. You disregard the parts that displease you, and soon your plate is full. But just as ignoring proper food will ultimately decay your body, so will handpicking the Truth eventually rot your soul.”

So, what does it mean to say that all are welcome? That all are invited to follow Jesus, to rise up when we fall, to never despair of God’s mercy, to never give up hope, to keep feeding our souls with God’s Word and the Bread of Life, to realize that we are endowed with infinite dignity, and that we are completely loved, fearfully and wonderfully made.

*Successful Auction!***

Thanks go out to everyone who had a hand in making our 14th Annual School Fundraising Auction another success. The 2024 Auction Committee would like to thank the Divine Savior students, School families, teachers and administration, donors and bidders, Parishioners and staff of our three linked Parishes, and the many area community members who make this event enjoyable, profitable, and a wonderful night of sharing and fun. Your continued outstanding support of Catholic Education at Divine Savior School shows that you care about our students, you care about our Faith, and you care about our future. Thank you!

In an effort to save money, we will be printing the bulletins in black and white every other week. The sponsors on the back of the bulletin cover the cost of printing by taking a spot. Recently we haven't filled all the spots on the sponsor page, but the costs are the same for color printing. Talk to Lynne if you'd like an ad spot.

Vacation Bible School

A Note from Danielle:

I am so excited to announce that this year's VBS is going to be a program I wrote and am currently in the process of getting published by Pflaum publishing and OCP publishing!! I am working with these companies to get my work on the market for others to purchase and use!! The next step is running it as a pilot parish. I will be having VBS the week of July 22-26 from 9am-11am at SS. Peter & Paul. It will be evaluated and feedback given to the companies before we move into the actual publishing stages!

It will be important to have a good group of students attending so we can get a full understanding of what needs to be printed and shared. So I am asking that you consider sending your children to this year's VBS.

The publishers have discussed coming to our VBS program to possibly take photos and get comments from the students and families to use within the final publication!! How exciting to think that our little parish could be shared with the country!!

I'll also need several middle schoolers, high schoolers and adults to help lead the event! I am also hoping to get a few artistic people to help with decorations and set-up. Please look for a VBS registration form in back of church and turn in your form and payment ASAP so I can begin working with those who will be helping/leading. If you wish to become involved in a more direct way please reach out to me!

Again I am so excited for this opportunity and hope you can help me make it a great success!!

Divine Savior News

The 7th and 8th graders from Divine Savior School recently participated in the Sierra Club Essay contest. They had to write about why they felt they would make a good Priest or Sister. Five students received honorable mention; Tommy Grundl, Gavyn Volland, Barrett Schaeuble, Madeline Augustine, and Madalyn Novak. Clare Meyer took first place as one of the four winners. Great job 7th & 8th graders!

Outdoor Mass

An outdoor Mass will be celebrated at the Mary Queen of Our Hearts Chapel in Steintal off Hwy 67 near Kiel on Monday, May 8, 2023. The Rosary begins at 11 am with Mass to follow at 11:20. Please bring a folding lawn chair.

Our Sympathy

Please remember in your prayers the family of Paul Isselmann whose funeral Mass will be celebrated here on Friday, May 3 at noon. May his family find comfort in God's presence and may they know God holds them close to His heart now and always.

Please also keep Joe Zenk, Eileen Piper and their families in your prayers. Their father's funeral was celebrated in River Falls on Tuesday. May he dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

MASS Time Change: Sunday – May 5, 2024

Please note that on Sunday, May 5, 2024, Mass at Holy Rosary will be at 8:00 am that day. The 10:00 Mass will switch to Ss. Peter & Paul as they will have First Holy Communion that day.

SS. Peter & Paul Heating Project

Thank you to those who have contributed specifically to our heating project. Those funds, which totaled $114,739.55, have already been used to cover the costs associated with the heating project. The balance is about $93,000. Tax-deductible contributions can be sent to the parish office in an envelope marked 'Heating Project'.

If we don't get funds to cover the rest before our One by one campaign funds are available, we may need to take out a loan to pay the last bill.

Mass Cancelled

There is a funeral on Friday, May 3 and because of this there will NOT be First Friday Mass or reconciliation.

Gathering Time

Pause a moment in your busy life to connect with others. All are welcome to stop down after the Sunday morning mass for some coffee, conversation, and maybe a treat (or two!) Grab your scrip order for the week too while you enjoy a cup of joe.

The Knights of Columbus are sponsoring popcorn on the 2nd Saturday of the month. You might even smell it while it's popping!

Memorial

Thank you to the Elmer & Rose Ann Werdeo family who donated some matching metal candlesticks, handcrafted by Tony Mertens. May God bless them for their generous gift.

Floor Cleaners

After the heating project was completed and clean up began we noticed our floor scrubbing machine was not working properly. Because of it's age parts are not available anymore. It's cleaned a lot of floors in the church and school, but now we're hoping to get a new one. There is also a need for a wax stripping machine to help clean the old wax off the floors in the school & basement before new coats are put down. Each new machine costs approximately $1,200. We really don't have money in the budget for these two machines, and our memorial money in savings has been used to cover the costs of the new boiler. If anyone would be willing to help us cover the costs of these cleaners with a tax deductible doantion, please talk to Father Amadi, Jeff Voland on our grounds committee, or Kim in the office.
