Patrick J. Boyle, S.J.: In Memoriam

By Fr. Alvan I. Amadi

When I lost my father shortly after my ordination to the priesthood, Father Boyle went out of his way to send me the kindest and most thoughtful note in which he not only offered to celebrate a Mass for my father, but also shared his own experience grieving the loss of his own parents and how the love of good friends and family was such a comfort. His gesture of kindness and support made a deep and lasting impression. I was deeply moved and touched.

Attending one of his Masses, which he celebrated very early on Saturday mornings (the one day in the week when seminarians do not have to attend the scheduled Mass for the day but can go to any neighboring parish for Mass) was a profound spiritual encounter with Christ who obviously was the center of his life and the foundation of his priesthood. He was deeply absorbed in it and totally present to it. Watching him celebrate Mass, we learned to love the Mass. We heard a story that he once told his Jesuit provincial who was visiting him at the seminary. He told him that he had a confession to make. Understandably, the provincial was worried and did not know what to make of this situation. His confession, though, was that he was “addicted to the Mass.” One can only imagine the provincial’s sigh of relief. Although he spent much of his priesthood in the formation of diocesan priests, Father Boyle loved the Society of Jesus and was exceedingly proud to be a Jesuit. I remember one afternoon, at our lunch table where we were engaged in a lively debate about the merits or lack thereof of a book we were using for a class in Trinitarian theology.

The book, “The Trinity: An Introduction to Catholic Doctrine on the Triune God,” was written by Gilles Emery, an unknown (at least in America) Swiss theologian who at the time was appointed to the International Theological Commission in Rome. Father

Boyle who was walking past, asked what the fuss was all about. When he heard it was about Gilles Emery’s book, he asked if he was “one of ours” namely, whether he was a Jesuit. When we told him Emery was a Dominican, he smiled as he said, “Ahhh he must not be that good then” and kept walking. The principal celebrant and homilist at Father Boyle’s funeral was his personal friend, fellow moral theologian, former military chaplain and former colleague at the Mundelein Seminary faculty, Archbishop Jerome ListECKI of the Milwaukee Archdiocese. His homily, which was eloquent and heartfelt, was a true testament to a long and genuine friendship between two churchmen who have devoted their lives to service to God and country. Noting Father Boyle’s love for the Mass, the Archbishop observed that there was no need for a Eucharistic Revival for Pat Boyle as love for the Eucharist was an ever-present reality in his priesthood. Suffused with rib-cracking humor and profound spiritual insights as is fitting for the funeral of a priest who loved life and who lived for others as Father Boyle did, the homily was both touching and memorable. Listening to Fathers Brendan Lupton and Marek Duran from the seminary faculty, who were close friends of Pat Boyle’s share a few words of remembrance at the end of Mass, was both heartwarming and inspiring as they told a few more Father Boyle stories. He was undoubtedly a remarkable priest, a man of deep faith, a wise confessor and an outstanding Jesuit priest. It is our fervent hope that generations of young priests and former students will be inspired by the greatness of soul, wonderful humanity, generosity, humor and love that was abundantly manifested in the life and priesthood of Patrick J. Boyle, S.J. On All Souls Day especially, one of my masses will be for the happy repose of my beloved professor, Father Patrick J. Boyle, SJ.

Requiescat in Pace, Amen.

Divine Savior Marketing

Divine Savior is looking for people from our three linked parishes to join their marketing group. Their main focus is promoting the school. Don't have marketing experience? That's ok. They're hoping for people who value a Catholic education. Contact the school to find out more information.

Mass Time Change

For a long time now, the Prayer & Worship Committee and the Pastoral Council have been exploring with Father Amadi the possibility of moving the Sunday Mass time from 7:45AM to 8:00 AM. Numerous parishioners have expressed a desire to have the Sunday Mass at St. Ann's Church begin at a later time. Hence after much prayer and consultation with many from our community ---including Fr. Carl Diederichs who has continued to generously serve St. Ann's parish --- and informed by the expressed desires of many of you, we have made the decision to move St. Ann's Sunday Mass to 8 am beginning December 3, 2023 - the first Sunday of Advent.

Save the Date!

Holy Rosary Faith Formation's sponsored Community BINGO will be on Wed, Nov 29th from 6:15-7:30. This is a FREE event located at Spartan Hall (Holy Rosary Gym). Join us for an evening of fun, chance to win some prizes, and enjoy some refreshments too!

Divine Savior Collections

Divine Savior School is reminding friends, families, and all linked parish members that Rick's Piggly Wiggly of Kiel's store receipts can be turned into cash for the school. Receipts will be processed by volunteers for cash refunds that directly benefit our students and school. Please save your receipts and deposit them in the container labeled Piggly Wiggly Receipts found in the breezeway at SS. Peter & Paul and at the back of Holy Rosary & St. Ann. Try to do it in a timely manner because the receipts will fade over time and cannot be read.

We also save Box Tops for Education, but no more clipping is required. You simply need to download the Box Tops for Education App on your phone, select Divine Savior School of Kiel, then scan your receipt. If any of your items have box tops, they will automatically be entered through the app.

No need to send in any more box top for education labels or Campbell Soup labels.

These are great opportunities to support Catholic Education at Divine Savior School.

Grab a plate full of food, there is always enough! Pull up a chair, we'll move over for you. Share a story. Or you can just sit back and listen. Laugh a little, or maybe laugh a lot! We'd love to spend an hour or so with you. Please join us for this free community meal, and bring a friend too! This Thursday, November 16 at 5:30 pm in the Kiel VFW Hall, 715 10th St, Kiel, until the SSPP heating project is finished.

Christmas Cheer

All three parishes are accepting donations of new toys/gifts for children, preteen and teenagers to be given to families during our Christmas Cheer giveaway program. Containers are located in the main entrances/Narthex of the church. The gifts should be new, unwrapped, and valued at between $10-20. We can also use books, games and puzzles. The Christmas Cheer Program is implemented through the St. Vincent de Paul Society of Kiel and recipient families are from the Kiel/New Holstein and surrounding area. Accepting donations through November 29.

For the last several years, this program worked with approximately 200 children ages 0—18. In addition to the donated toys/gifts, the SVdP Society spent almost $12,000 in food and merchandise gift cards for the program. We help 80 families each year. Your support is so important. Thank you and God Bless.

St. Lawrence Seminary Campus Visit

Any boys in grades 6-8 are invited to join us for a trip out to St. Lawrence Seminary High School, in Mt. Calvary, on Sunday Dec. 10th. The boys will be attending Mass at 10:15pm, eating lunch with the students at St. Lawrence and wrapping up their day with a tour of the beautiful campus. To sign up your son for this or for more information please contact Danielle Ehlbeck at daniellefaithformation@gmail.com by Nov 15th.

Deacons Deli

Fr John Girotti will be the guest for the November Deacon's Deli, answering questions about our Catholic Faith. He asked that we compile a list of questions in advance. If you would like to submit a written question, you can give them to either Dcn Pat or Dcn Dennis, or certainly get them to the parish offices.

Our Sympathy

We remember in our prayers the family of J. Kenneth Schnell whose funeral Mass was celebrated here Friday. May his family find comfort in God's presence and may they know God holds them close to His heart now and always.

Book of Remembrance

During the month of November, we remember our loved ones who have passed on to the Kingdom of God. Our Book of Remembrance will be located at the front of church. Feel free to include any names you would like remembered in prayer. The book will remain in place during the entire month, allowing the community to hold our loved ones in prayer.

Bible Study

Join us for a bible study on the Gospel of Matthew on Tuesdays at 6 pm in the newly remodeled rectory library. Don't worry if you can't make it every Tuesday. We'd love it if you join us when you can. Enter through the east rectory door. Reach out to Karen Hennings if you need more information or to find out what chapter we'll be discussing. 920-286-1752

Collection for the Food Pantry

Instead of a collection at our Thanksgiving Mass, for the entire month of November we will be collecting non-perishable food items and paper product for the Kiel Community Pantry, Rays of Hope. You can bring your items with you to church anytime during the month and place them in the baskets at the side entrances and in the narthex.

As is our custom here at SS. Peter & Paul, the monetary collection on Thanksgiving Day will be given SVdP.

Annual Booklets

Feel free to pick up an annual booklet that was reviewed at our annual meeting last Friday. They can be found on the table under the Rose Window

Office Closed

The office will be closed on Thursday while Kim has a day off!

Thanksgiving Meals

SS. Peter & Paul is teaming up with Badger's Den to offer a simple, prepackaged Thanksgiving meal to anyone, at no charge. If you feel that you, a family member, a friend, or a neighbor would enjoy a meal, for any reason at all, please give the Rectory a call (920-894-3553). Meals will be delivered between 9—10:30 am on Thanksgiving morning.

Scrip

Before you know it, it'll be Christmas. Take the guesswork out of this giving season and let your loved ones choose their own perfect gift. The Visa® Gift Card has no activation fees when you buy them through our scrip program in $25 & $100 denominations. Your recipients will get the full value of the card, and the church will get 1.25%. They are also available as a special order in $50, $250, and $500 amounts. Redeemable nationwide in-store and online everywhere Visa debit cards are accepted.

We have three $250 cards for Exxon Mobil that were ordered by mistake. If anyone gasses up their vehicles there and could buy one, that would help out the scrip program tremendously. Just note it on your order form when you order.
