words on the Word

by Father Alvan Amadi, Pastor

A Preistly Gratitude

It happens almost like clockwork, more times than I can count. I come into a restaurant for a good meal either by myself or with some friends. After the meal, I ask for the check with the intention of leaving a generous tip for the courteous service of the waiters. Then, I am told by the waiter that an anonymous benefactor has paid for the meal. Often times, I do not know these kind souls personally. A few other times, I would know who they were because they asked me after Mass a few weeks later whether I enjoyed my meal at the restaurant the other day. The knowing smile gives them away and I always express my gratitude for their thoughtful and generous hearts.

In course of my priestly life, this has happened so many times and keeps on happening: the generosity of God's holy people to their priests. Many priests will tell the same beautiful story. This is the case even with people who are not my parishioners, for I have experienced this same generosity while travelling outside our parishes boundaries simply because I am dressed like a priest.

Nonetheless, the goodness and generosity of God's holy people in our three parishes to me has been remarkable. I am simply moved with gratitude. I have been invited to dinner at many homes and some have brought to my rectory delicious homecooked meals. I am frequently supplied with fresh vegetables, herbs, eggs and meat. From time to time, someone leaves at my rectory door a nice jacket and sweater to make sure that I keep warm. When I was travelling back and forth to Washington D.C. for my doctoral studies, an anonymous benefactor occasionally gave me an envelope with some spending money in it and always with a kind note of encouragement. The same goes for when I travel overseas.

In more ways than I can recount, I have tasted and seen the goodness of God through the generosity of God's people. They did not have to do any of these. They do them, nonetheless, because they love and appreciate their priests. I am grateful, thankful and blessed.

Recently, I read an article on the importance of gratitude in the life of a disciple of Christ and how it helps one to choose joy each day. I was moved to recall the ways – great and small, that I have experienced and continue to experience the loving kindness of God through the generosity of God's holy people. I am profoundly grateful for my priestly vocation, truly thankful for your generous hearts and immensely blessed to be your pastor. As the line from the hymn says, "how can I keep from singing?"

SS. PETER & PAUL

Scrip

Many restaurants & businesses are charging credit card fees for costs incurred for processing credit card payments. Want to avoid that? Use scrip. Scrip gift cards are NOT charged a fee when they are used. They are just like cash. In fact, SS. Peter & Paul actually gets a discount when we buy scrip gift cards.
Kwik Trip is offering a 10% discount for the month of September. On Monday we'll be placing a large order to take advantage of that discount.
$crip is sold in the office during the weekly office hours. You can call or email Kim your order if you want and it'll be ready for you, no waiting if you're in a hurry. It is also sold after the weekend Mass down in Voland Hall.

Tuckpointing Project

Work was completed on the church chimney and southern brickwork and the painting project inside the church west hallway is scheduled for a few weeks out yet. We have $27,805 towards the estimated $40,000 cost of both projects. If you'd like to help support these projects, donations can be mailed or dropped off at the office or placed in the collection during our weekend mass. Unless otherwise specified by law, all contributions are tax deductible.

ST. ANN

Roof Meeting

There will be a roof replacement meeting today, Sunday, September 27, following the 8 am Mass. Stay to hear a quick review of all bids as well as funding options.

Scrip

Fall outdoor projects? Don't forget to pick up scrip before you go. Scrip is available in the back of church after mass. Using scrip is a fantastic way to support the parish.

Pantry Collections

Even a small donation of food or money can have an immediate effect on those in need and can help provide them with access to food and other essentials that they may be struggling to afford.
St. Ann collects non-perishable food items for the Helping Hands Food Pantry on the 1st weekend of each month. Or put it in the bin whenever you bring it in. They are in need of the following items: paper products, peanut butter, jams and jellies, macaroni & cheese, baked beans, ketchup and hearty soups. Thanks for your support.

HOLY ROSARY

Fall Festival

Sign-up sheets for food items, etc. are in each wing of church. We appreciate any and all donations. Monetary donations are greatly appreciated to help offset the cost of the meat. This is our Parish's biggest fundraiser and we need your help. There are also sign-up sheets for making tortes. We know we have great bakers in our parish. Please consider making a torte or two. Additionally, there are extra Fall Festival raffle tickets located in each wing of church - Thank you so much!

Scrip

Need a new appliance or furniture? Stanley Schmitz and Chilton Furniture participate in our scrip program. Just mention our scrip program when you make your purchase and the merchant will fill in the scrip form and donate a portion of your purchase to our parish. The same goes for Marytown Garage when having service work done there. Someone is available in the West Wing of church each week for all your scrip needs.

Additional Mass Intentions Available

With Holy Rosary celebrating additional Masses on the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th (5th, if applicable) Friday of each month. There are still Mass intentions for those Friday's honoring loved ones are available for a $20 offering. Contact the parish office to request yours.

Choir Practice – Holy Rosary

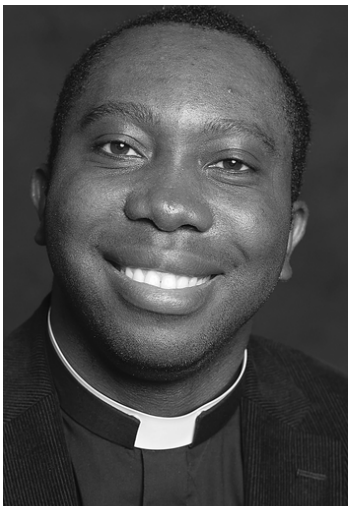

Practice will resume on September 28th at 6:15 pm. Choir practice at Holy Rosary is scheduled on Monday nights at 6:15 pm. Whether you are a seasoned vocalist or simply love to sing, we warmly invite you to share your musical gifts with our community. All are welcome to join; no prior experience is required—just a desire to sing and praise together.

Helping Hands Food Pantry

Every third Friday through October, the Helping Hands Food Pantry will have a special table available for fresh garden produce. If you have extra fruits, vegetables, or herbs from your garden, this is a wonderful opportunity to share them with neighbors in need. Together, we can make sure nothing goes to waste and everyone has access to healthy, fresh food. The Helping Hands Food Pantry is also in need of more of the following items: ketchup, mustard, kleenex, grape jelly, strawberry jam, and boxed cereals.

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

Priesthood Sunday is a day for honoring the priesthood and recognizing the service of priests in the Church. Every day, but especially today, we extend our deepest gratitude, honor, and blessings to Fr. Alvan Amadi. Please pray for him, thank him, and let him know you appreciate his dedication to the Catholic Church.

We cannot thank him enough for truly being the face of God to our communities. May God abundantly bless you, Father Alvan, for your dedicated service!

Weekly Scripture

Sunday's Readings

First Reading

But if he turns from the wickedness he has committed, he does what is right and just,
he shall preserve his life. (Ez 18:27)

Psalm

Remember your mercies, O Lord. (Ps 25)

Second Reading

That at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (Phil 2:10-11)

Gospel

Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you,
tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you."
(Mt 21:31)
