Veiling the Crucifix and Statues

The last two weeks in the season of Lent are called Passiontide which begins on the Fifth Sunday of Lent. This is when the Church shifts her focus from Christ in the desert (the Gospel for the First Sunday of Lent) to Christ during His Passion.

During this period of Passiontide, you may notice that the crucifix and other statues and images around the church have been veiled with a purple cloth. This is an ancient liturgical custom that draws attention to the Lenten emphasis on Christ's death and burial in the tomb while looking forward to his glorious resurrection.

In the Roman Missal we find the instruction, "In the Dioceses of the United States, the practice of covering crosses and images throughout the church from the fifth Sunday of Lent may be observed. Crosses remain covered until the end of the Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday, but images remain covered until the beginning of the Easter Vigil."

Why do we veil images?

The practice of veiling images alerts us that something is different, it can be startling at first, but the last two weeks of Lent are a time of immediate preparation for the celebration of the Sacred Triduum. The veils are hard to miss and they serve as a reminder to get ready!

The veiled images build within us a longing for Easter Sunday. The veils seem out of place, and even counterintuitive. It can seem strange that the crucifix is covered up during Passiontide. Through this absence of images, our senses are heightened and we become more aware of what is missing. Similarly, the suppression of the Alleluia during Lent effectively demonstrates that we are in exile from our true Home, where the angels sing Alleluia without ceasing.

When images are unveiled before the Easter Vigil, we are reminded that we, in a sense, live in a veiled world. It is through our own death that we are able to see our true home, and the veil is lifted. Christ lifts the veil through His Resurrection.

Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die"(John 11:25-26)

If you have not given in the past please consider making your first gift to this year's Bishop's Appeal and be part of the parish support for our diocese to help our essential ministries continue for generations to come. This marks week six of the Bishop's Appeal. Thanks to your support and prayers, the 2026 Bishop's Appeal has raised more than $4,086,778 from 13,346 individuals and families.

World's Poor Collection

This weekend we take up our World's Poor Collection benefiting the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, Catholic Relief Services, Peter's Pence, and the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa. Your support of this collection provides relief for struggling communities, both here and around the world. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the collection. Thank you for your generosity in supporting this collection and sharing Christ's love with others.

Lent-These 40 Days

There is spiritual power in giving to our Lenten project. In addition to the good you can do by giving to others, nothing protects YOU from greed like giving does. As Jesus said, "Give alms and everything will be clean for you." Luke 11:41

During Lent our second collections in all three parishes will go towards our Lenten Project; area food pantries. Extra Lenten project envelopes can be found at the entrances, in the narthex or in the pews. The World's Poor and Building & Ground envelopes can be included in the regular collections for the next few weeks.

The theme is Prairie Picnic (Mar 21/22)

Our Lenten Project Goal = $15,000

Total Donations Week 3 = $8,671

Vocation Retreat 2026

We had another successful vocation retreat on Feb. 21.

Theme: Gift of Silence; Listen to God's Voice

A Huge 'Thank you' for the Financial Contributions from: Knights of Columbus, Ss Peter and Paul, Holy Rosary, and K.W Electric.

We were so fortunate to have many people that helped to make the day a success:

Fr. Amadi for all the valuable advice as we planned the retreat. Also for facilitating several discussions.

The Franciscan Sisters of Christian Charity (Sister Julie Ann, Sister Rose) for their many contributions and discussions.

Fr. Nicholas (Nico) Stellpflug for sharing his journey to the priesthood and for his contributions to the discussions.

Kim Driscoll and Lynne Becker for all their help in making sure we received all necessary items on time!

Mike Skelton, the Holy Rosary janitor, for making Spartan Hall ready for the retreat.

But most important, thank you to all the Students who attended the retreat. They were very attentive, asked good questions and were fun to get to know.

Besides the Vocation Ministry Team, we enlisted the help of Lisa Gross who was an invaluable resource.

Thank you! The Vocation Ministry Team

Donna Schwantes, Sherry Winkel, Nancy Stein

Food & Fellowship

I can't guarantee you'll see a leprechaun at our upcoming Food & Fellowship, but you might see some green. Come on over on Thursday, March 19 at 5:30 pm in lower level of SS. Peter & Paul. Sport some green, and join in the fun. Everyone's got a bit of Irish in them all! Plenty of food, treats & more. You won't go away hungry or short of Irish laughter. You'll be so glad you did you might not want to leave. Kissing the cook? Always optional!

Homeless Hygiene Collection

The Holy Rosary St. Vincent de Paul Society is participating in an area program called "Help for the Homeless Hygiene Drive." Boxes are available at each church thru March 20 for donations. Easter Flowers

You can help decorate the church for Easter by making a donation for flowers in memory of a loved one or in thanksgiving. Your packet of envelopes includes one for Easter Flowers. You can use that envelope or one of your own clearly marked "Easter Flowers" and drop it in the collection basket. Please specify who you would like the flowers in memory of or in honor of.

Adoration & Soup & Stations

We will share a free, simple meal of soup and bread that starts at 5:30 pm. Stations begin at 6 pm. This Monday, March 16, the SS. Peter & Paul finance committee will be serving chili and will lead Stations of the Cross.

Adoration in Kiel will not take place during Lent since we will be praying the Stations of the Cross on Mondays. You are welcome to join us to pray the Stations.

Easter Meals

Badger's Den, S.S. Peter & Paul and the area community are teaming up again to offer a simple, pre-packaged Easter meal to anyone, at no charge. If you know someone would enjoy a meal, please call the office (920 894-3553). Delivery is to be determined yet. Want to help with delivery? Contact Jeff Voland for more information. Monetary donations are always welcome to help offset the cost of this ministry. Drop any donations in the collection or mail, being sure to label it Holiday Meals.

Senior Birthdays

These "senior" parishioners celebrate birthdays in March. They include Eileen Walsdorf (1), Mary Ann Deibele (5), Germaine Faust (7), Kathy Casper (9), Carol Gierke (9), Fran Pitz (10), Ann Dietsche (13), Joanne Bruesewitz (16), Ken Richter (25), Elaine Anhalt (28). May God bless you on your birthday and through-out the entire year!

Scrip Volunteers

We are looking for some volunteers to sell scrip after the Saturday Masses, maybe once a month. If we get 2 people, everyone has to do it once a month for the 6 months we have mass on Saturdays, or 6 times. If not, we may only sell scrip twice a month on Saturdays. Please reach out to Kim in the office if you would consider helping with this ministry.

Scrip is sold in the office during the weekly office hours. You can call or email Kim your order if you want and it'll be ready for you, no waiting if you're in a hurry.

Unlocking/Locking

We are looking for 2 volunteers who would take one Saturday a month for the six months we have mass on Saturdays to unlock doors before mass and then lock them after mass. Please talk to Kim for more information.

Parish Leadership

Please prayerfully discern whether God is calling you or someone you know to step forward at this time to take an active role on the Parish Council. The parish council assists the pastor in planning, coordinating, and leading the spiritual and pastoral life of the parish. Want to learn more? Contact Guy/Sue Chollet, Barry/Kay Blatz or Monica Kleinhans.

Many people think there should be an exception allowing for abortion in cases of rape. Does a baby conceived in rape have less dignity than one conceived in a loving relationship? Why should an innocent baby be killed for the crime of his/her father? Is the violence of rape eliminated by a second violence of abortion? Women are victims of rapists. They should be treated with love and compassion and aided in healing. The rapist should be punished. But a baby conceived in rape is still made in the image and likeness of God and should be protected.

Pray for an end to abortion during the Lent 40 Days for Life campaign through March 29. Sign up for vigil hours at www.40daysforlife.com/sheboygan, or contact Germaine 920-918-2310 or Gina 920-917-9324. Be a voice for the voiceless.

They brought the one who was once blind to the Pharisees. Now Jesus had made clay and opened his eyes on a sabbath. So then the Pharisees also asked him how he was able to see. He said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and now I can see." - Jn 9:13-15
