Matthew
18:15-20

A few summers ago, my family had a big reunion. It included my parents, my four siblings, and all their many children. One of my favorite moments was simply watching my parents' contented faces as they took in all of us together, laughing, sharing food, singing, telling stories. They loved seeing their children happily together with each other.

That is something like the heart of God we see in today's Gospel message about Christian reconciliation. These verses come right after Jesus' parable of the lost sheep. He is not giving the disciples a cold formula for dealing with conflict. He is revealing the Father's longing for children who love and reconcile with each other. His heart aches when his children are divided and isolated.

So when Jesus says, "Go and tell your brother his fault," He is not deputizing us as morality police. He is inviting us into his mission of reconciliation. When he adds, "If he listens to you, you have won over your brother," we glimpse the real goal. Not winning arguments, but reuniting a divided family.

These days, we often think religion is just between God and me. But the Father's dream is about a lively family, one in which His children forgive, gather, and rejoice together.

Lord Jesus, give me the courage to seek reconciliation where it is needed. Make my heart resemble the Father's heart, longing and working for unity among His children. Amen.

— Father John Muir

addressed. We've been accepting donations to cover the cost of this project, as well as painting inside the church west hallway in late fall, and as of Sept 2 we have $27,805 towards the estimated $40,000 cost of both projects. While these projects are not glamorous, they are essential.
If you'd like to help support these projects, donations can be mailed or dropped off at the office or placed in the collection during our weekend mass. Unless otherwise specified by law, all contributions are tax deductible

Scrip

As summer is slowly winding down, there's still plenty of time to treat the summer heat with an ice cream treat from Dairy Queen. We carry certificates/cards from the Kiel Dairy Queen and the Chilton Dairy Queen. Scrip is available at church after the weekend Mass and at the Parish Office and Premier Financial Credit Union during office hours.

Fall Festival-September 14th

Sign-up sheets for food items, etc. will be in each wing of church. We appreciate any and all donations. Monetary donations are greatly appreciated to help offset the cost of the meat. This is our Parish's biggest fundraiser and we need your help. There are also sign-up sheets for making tortes. We know we have great bakers in our parish. Please consider making a torte or two. Finally, don't forget to pick up your raffle tickets, they are located in the North Wing of church (we are not allowed to mail tickets). If we can all sell at least five tickets, it will greatly help our cause. – Thank you so much!

Attention Parish Bakers

We will again be selling peanut squares at the Fall Festival.
We will need approximately 35 sponge cakes. You can bake cakes, cut into 21 pieces, then freeze. On September 24th, you can bring cakes to our parish kitchen. If you can bake a cake and/or help with frosting and rolling, please contact Barb at 920-286-0596 or Ann at 920-652-4365. Any help is greatly appreciated.

Helping Hands Food Pantry

Every third Friday through October, the Helping Hands herbs from your garden, this is a wonderful opportunity to share them with neighbors in need. Together, we can make sure nothing goes to waste and everyone has access to healthy, fresh food. The Helping Hands Food Pantry is also in need of more of the following items: ketchup, mustard, kleenex, grape jelly, strawberry jam, and boxed cereals.

ST. ANN

Weekly Scripture

Virtues, Explained!

Most commonly, we understand the term "vindication" in a very legal, argumentative context. We say someone is "vindicated" when they are proven innocent, or when their good name is defended from an accusation.

This isn't so far from what vindication means in the sense of virtue, either. Vindication is related to the virtue of justice, which demands we honor our duty to God and to one another. Justice seeks to ensure the fairness of human interaction. It seeks to safeguard truth against those who would co-opt it for their own purposes.

If we truly put our trust in God and seek to do His will, we may not always have popularity, but we will have truth: "Commit your way to the Lord, trust in him and he will act, and make your righteousness shine like the dawn, your justice like noonday."
(Psalm 37:5-6)

Sunday's Readings

First Reading

But if you warn the wicked, trying to turn him from his way,
and he refuses to turn from his way,
he shall die for his guilt, but you shall save yourself. (Ez 33:9)

Psalm

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
(Ps 95)

Second Reading

Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another;
for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. (Rom 13:8)

Gospel

Amen, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. (Mt 18:18)
