(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: When we love someone, we want to be associated with them. We want to be recognized as theirs somehow. And if we love Christ, we should want to be known as belonging to him. We should want those who see us to know we are his.

Resembling Jesus

I once wrote an article about several women residents of a local nursing home. In researching the piece, I discovered that they had grown up in the same neighborhood as my grandmother, and that one of the women was, in fact, my grandmother's dearest childhood friend.

When I visited this woman to take her photograph, she took a long look at my face, and I could see in her eyes that she was reaching back in her memory across the years.

She said: "You resemble her."

I wept on the way home.

My grandmother died when I was nine, and for the last several years of her life she suffered from Alzheimer's disease. I have always deeply grieved the time we lost, the relationship we could have had. I have hazy fragments of memory from before her illness that lead me to believe we loved each other very much.

Being told I look like my grandmother by someone who knew her well — being identified as belonging to her in some way — was one of the more beautiful things to happen to me.

When we love someone, we want to be associated with them. We want to be recognized as theirs somehow. And if we love Christ, we should want to be known as belonging to him. We should want those who see us to know we are his.

The only way we can resemble Jesus is through love. It is his most recognizable quality, his most famous trait. This is how all will know that you are my disciples.

As Catholics, we are always talking about finding ways to live our faith boldly, unapologetically, publicly. Good — we should! But if we want people to know we are Catholic, we should love them. Bravely. Recklessly. Sacrificially.

As he loves us.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Catholic Life Explained Question:

If God is good, why is there evil in the world?

Answer:

The problem of evil is perplexing. If God is all-powerful and all-good, why doesn't He stop bad things from happening? He must either not be all-powerful, or perhaps He's not very good after all. Human beings have faced the possibility of evil since the very beginning of our existence. In granting us free will, God gives us the ability to make free choices. God does not force us into moral perfection. We are not forced to love Him or to love our neighbor. We must make the decision ourselves. This means, of course, that we have the ability to choose against love.

One small decision of selfishness, jealousy, or pride may not seem so bad. But every decision — good or bad — is like a stone dropped into a still pond. The ripples extend much farther than the original stone. When decisions against love begin to compound, they affect families, neighborhoods, and nations. This is all the more reason for Christians to be faithful to our baptismal call to love one another as Christ has loved us!

Pray for Vocations

As you remember last February we began a program of Spiritual Adoption for Seminarians in the Green Bay Diocese. It was so wonderful that we were able to distribute the profiles of those Seminarians to members in all 3 churches. For those who accepted this adoption program, have you been praying for your adopted Seminarian? Have you sent him a note of encouragement?

For those that didn't adopt a Seminarian, we hope you are praying for all Seminarians, in the Green Bay Diocese and beyond!

The Vocation Ministry Team

Madagascar Vanilla

Vanilla is back. . . just in time for Mother's Day! SS. Peter & Paul is once again selling 12 oz. McNeess Madagascar Vanilla for $15/bottle. To purchase one (or more!) stop in the SSPP rectory office during office hours (8:30—4).

May Gifts for The Crossing

Baby items are being accepted through the month of May. There is a playpen in church to collect NEW baby items that will be donated to The Crossing in Manitowoc. We want to help those mothers and fathers who may be going through hardships or in need of assistance. Please consider donating to this precious and worthy cause.

Bible Study

We're moving on to the Glorious Mysteries! All are welcome to join a bible study on the Glorious Mysteries. It consists of 5 weeks; one week for each mystery. We will study, then pray that decade as our closing prayer each week. It takes place in the SS. Peter & Paul rectory lower level {Mary's Room} on Thursday afternoons at 2:30 and will last 60 to 90 minutes, depending on everyone's needs and desires. Please bring your bibles and your best attention as we watch a short video and discuss. For details, please call Karen Hennings 920-286-1752.

Wisconsin Right to Life Rose Sale

Last weekend was the annual Right to Life Rose Sale at Holy Rosary & St. Ann parishes. St. Ann raised $317 and Holy Rosary raised $448. The money raised will help fund VIDA and the Pro-Life Exhibit at the Calumet County Fair in Chilton.

Summer Help Needed

St. Lawrence Seminary is looking to hire temporary High School and College students to work 40 hrs/week, Monday – Friday. The job includes: deep cleaning of bathrooms, classrooms, dorms, offices, furniture, floors, carpets, moving of furniture, climbing ladders and occasional raking and weeding, etc. Dates are June 2 – August 8. For an application, please contact Amber Lefebvre at 920-753-7524 or email her at alefeber@stlawrence.edu (please include your name, address and phone number in the email).

Chapel of Divine Mercy in Chilton

Are you praying for loved ones?

Are you or loved ones in need of healing?

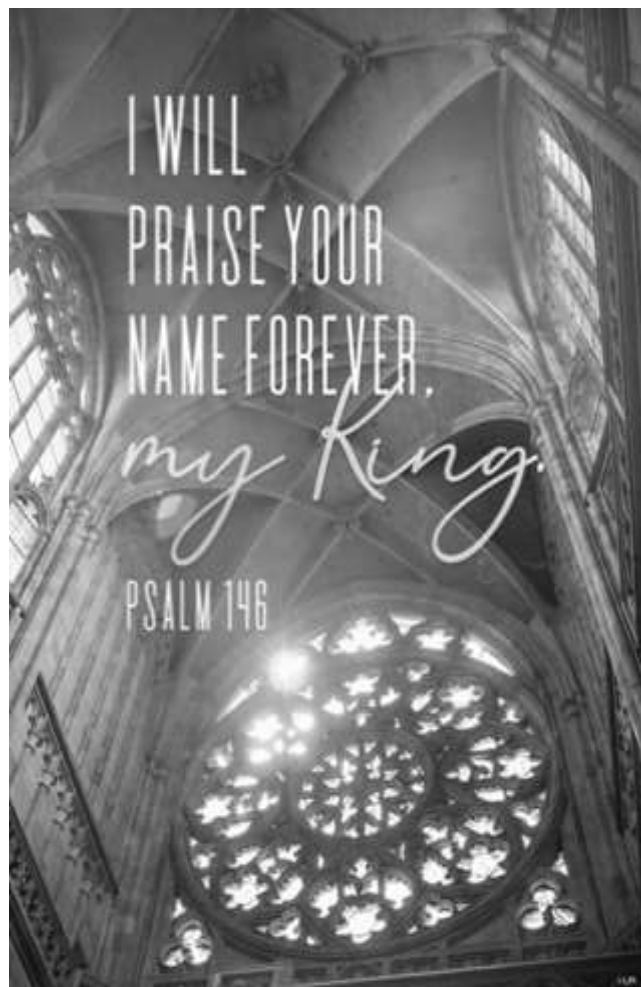

Are you searching for peace in your life?

Have you been thinking about signing up for an hour of adoration?

What are you waiting for?

Catholics often start spiritual steps on special feast days. We will soon be celebrating Corpus Christi, a feast requested by our Lord to commemorate the real presence of the Body of Christ. What better time to begin your journey with the Lord!

The chapel is in need of adorers. The sub system makes it very easy when conflicts arise. Your one hour of the week will soon become your best hour. Don't wait any longer.
