The Straight Path

Ten to fifteen years ago the Department of Transportation decided that it would be fun to give everyone in my zip code something to complain about and replaced most of our major intersections with roundabouts.

This wouldn't be so irksome, I suppose, if I understood how to navigate a roundabout. In theory I do, I've read all the rules and I've watched those cute little YouTube videos where they show you which car is supposed to go at what time. But theory and practice are rather different. And the bottom line is, I never approach a roundabout without taking a deep, anxious breath and tightening my grip on the steering wheel, not entirely sure what my next move should be.

I think of roundabouts every time I hear today's Gospel reading, where John the Baptist echoes Isaiah in beseeching us to make straight the paths of the Lord. See, I always think I've made a straight path between me and God. I go to Mass. I go to Confession. I say my prayers.

He can get to me if He wants, I tell myself.

But without realizing it, I put up roundabouts. I make rules. You go here, God, and then I go here. I'll do this, God, but first You do this. You stay in your lane, and I stay in mine. Eventually I find myself taking a different route altogether; the road that stretches between me and Him is too daunting. I start avoiding it.

Sometimes I think God wants the path to be straight not for Himself but for us. He can handle a roundabout. But He knows that when we must run to Him, we have to do it without thinking. In the dark. In fear, in anxiety.

So, this Advent, beware the roundabouts. Make straight the path.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

What's the story behind the Advent wreath?

Answer:

Each season in the liturgical calendar comes with its own local and regional rituals. During the Advent season, wreaths adorn church sanctuaries and family dining room tables. You may have said Advent wreath prayers in childhood or taken a turn lighting the candles. The Advent wreath is full of symbolism about Christ and his coming at Christmas. The wreath is made of evergreen boughs, reminding us that the life of grace doesn't falter with the changing seasons. It always remains fresh and new. Similarly, a circular wreath reminds us of the eternal, never-ending nature of God's love.

Candles remind us that Christ is the light of the world, the One who "shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." We use four candles to represent each week of Advent. Traditionally they come in the liturgical colors of the season. Purple has historically represented penance and sacrifice. We see the same color for the season of Lent. On the third Sunday of Advent, however, we light a rose color. The priest will wear rose vestments at Mass. This is Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete means "rejoice" in Latin. On the third Sunday of Advent, we're roughly halfway through the season. The Church chooses the midpoint to remind us to celebrate in the midst of our anticipation! Whatever the color and whatever the day, the Advent wreath is a beautiful practice to focus our attention on Christ's coming at Christmas.

Immaculate Conception

The Feast of the Immaculate Conception commemorates the Virgin Mary's conception without the stain of original sin. This belief is central to the Catholic doctrine of the Immaculate Conception, which holds that Mary was chosen by God to be the mother of Jesus Christ, and that she was preserved from the sin of Adam and Eve in order to be a pure vessel for the Son of God.

Mass will be celebrated at St. Ann at 6:30 pm on Monday, December 9. The rosary will be prayed at 6 pm.

Retirement Second Collection

Next weekend, our parishes will take up a second collection for the Retirement Fund. This will be to benefit two groups of people who have served us faithfully. We will have the opportunity to give to the National Retirement Fund for Religious, which helps our retired sisters, brothers and religious order priests. We also have an opportunity to give to the retirement needs of the senior priests in the Diocese of Green Bay. You may donate to both of these groups, or just to one. Please use the envelope provided.

Divine Savior

All are invited on December 12 at 6:00 PM in the SS. Peter & Paul Church to watch and listen to the Divine Savior students perform their Christmas concert.

Men of Christ

All men are welcome to join us for That Man is You Fall 2024 Sessions. On Saturday, December 14 from 7:30—9 am in the Mary, Queen of Peace room at Holy Rosary we will discuss My Son, Jonathan.

Grief Support Group News

Our Grief Support Group meets once a month on the first Wednesday of each month at the Holy Rosary School, and we are completing a book study in which we read one chapter a month and share our responses at our monthly meetings. We have great discussions. The book we are completing this month (Dec) is by Dr Mary Neal called "7 Lessons From Heaven", and starting January 2025 our Grief Support Group is beginning a new book for our book study. Our new book "Imagine Heaven" written by John Burke promises to open ourselves to sharing and discovering more about ourselves and deepening our spiritual journey along with great discussions. Briefly, we'll read about "Near-Death Experiences, God's Promises, and the Exhilarating Future That Awaits Us. This is open to anyone who may have suffered the loss of a loved one. If you want to join us, please call the parish offices and register. You will need to purchase the book "Imagine Heaven", which Deacon Dennis has several copies which you can pickup the Holy Rosary Parish Office.

Piggly Wiggly Receipts

Thank you to everyone who saved their receipts for Divine Savior School and to Kiel's Piggly Wiggly for their support of our school with the receipt program. It has ended and we are no longer collecting the receipts.

Madagascar Vanilla

Baking season is here. SS. Peter & Paul is once again selling 12 oz. McNess Madagascar Vanilla for $15/bottle. Only a few more bottles are left. This classic, unique blend of pure Madagascar vanilla and fortifiers creates a smooth flavoring compound. To purchase one (or more!) stop in the rectory office during office hours (8:30—4). It makes a great gift for anyone who loves to bake!

Live Nativity

Villa of the Holy Land is having their 25th Live Nativity on Friday December 13th and Saturday December 14th, both at 5:30. This is likely their final performance, so reserve your spot while they are available. Call Wendy at 920-948-1276 for tickets.

Advent Speaker

Katie Prejean McGrady is a wife, mom, award-winning author, international speaker, podcaster & daily radio show host. Join her on Wednesday, December 11 from 6:15—7:45 pm at St. John The Baptist, Plymouth.

Our Sympathy

We remember in our prayers the family of Les Klauck whose funeral Mass was celebrated here last week. May his family find comfort in God's presence and may they know God holds them close to His heart now and always. May he dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

WEShare On-Line Giving

Venmo is now enabled for our on-line giving. Digital wallets like Apple Pay, Google Pay, Venmo, and PayPal allow users to complete transactions with just a few taps, eliminating the need to enter payment details repeatedly. Go to our website threeparishesonefaith.com, scroll down to the donate now! button, click on the picture of SS. Peter & Paul, and create an account, or log into your account if you already have one and make changes to your payment method. During the month of December there were over 40 on-line giving transactions totaling just over $2,000 to Ss. Peter & Paul. Thank you!

Thanksgiving Meals

Volunteers delivered just over 140 delicious meals for Thanksgiving last Wednesday. It was another successful outreach mission that so many people from a wide variety of backgrounds were part of, and the food prepared by the Badger's Den was outstanding. The significance of having these meals available for anyone and everyone to enjoy, without cost to them, is such a great community effort. The Kiel community and surrounding area is wonderful place to be.

Christmas Flowers

Christmas flowers donations are being accepted for flowers and Christmas decorations for the church. You may make your donation in memory of, in honor of or in thanksgiving. Your packet of envelopes includes one for Christmas flowers. You may place your intention and donation in that envelope, or one of your own clearly marked 'Christmas Flowers' with your name on it, drop it in the collection basket at Mass or bring it to the rectory.

Calendars

Help yourself to a 2025 calendar found at each side entrance and on the table in the narthex under the rose window courtesy of Kiel's St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Christmas Mass Times

Join us for Mass at Ss. Peter & Paul on Christmas Eve, Tuesday, December 24 at 8 pm or Christmas Day, Wednesday, December 25 at 10 am to celebrate the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ!

Faith Formation Program

It takes a village. Thanks to those who volunteered to help with meals/snacks for the confirmation group. We could still use small group leaders. The role of the small group leader will be to ask questions, encourage dialogue, and listen. That's it! You will have a list of questions to help you get started, as well. With 18 kids, 3 small group leaders are needed each class to make this work.

Our faith community is a family of God made up of everyday people coming together to offer assistance, support and uplift one another. You're just who we need! Want to help out as a group leader? Please reach out to Kim in the office for open dates. And feel free to forward this note to grandparents or others you feel would be a good faith example and would be good at/enjoy leading!

Scrip

As we all count our blessings this holiday season, remember you can use scrip for the food and drinks you share, and for the gifts you give. A couple things new to the scrip box: Henning's Cheese comes in $25 cards; Salchert's Meats comes in $25 and $50 cards, and we now carry a $25 card for Riverview in addition to the $10 and $20 cards. Please stop if you have any questions on how the scrip program works, or if there are cards we don't carry in the box, but you'd like for holidays. A complete list of cards is available.

Poinsettia Memory Tree Order Form

The Poinsettia Tree will be set up in church for Christmas. If you wish to purchase a plant in memory of a deceased loved one, we invite you to submit $15 with his/her name to have a tag created and inserted in the plant. Order forms are available to fill out the names and number of plants you would like. They are available in the front pews, entry table, the parish center porch and on the website. Place your money/check along with the order form in an envelope and drop it into the collection basket or in the drop box in the porch by December 15. The plants are yours to take home when the décor is changed.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

John the Baptist was appointed to prepare the way for the Lord. This Advent, follow his example and prepare the way for the Lord. Invite the Lord to make straight the roads in your life that wind, and to smooth all that is rough in your heart.

Funeral Choir

Music is integral to the funeral rite. It has the power to console and uplift mourners and to strengthen the unity of the assembly in faith and love. In song one can help to “create in the families a spirit of hope in Christ’s victory over death and in the Christian’s share in that victory”. The funeral choir is looking to grow their members. Do you like to sing? Are you newly retired, or work remotely where you can be available during the week or a Saturday morning for a funeral? The group is also looking for someone to take the lead in contacting choir members when a funeral is scheduled. Please consider this ministry by contacting the parish office.
