(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: It makes perfect sense that everyone thought John the Baptist was the Messiah. He was the guy pouring the water. But the Messiah was the man who came to be baptized. He was the one who descended into the waters, submerging himself in our experience of death and pain and sorrow.

Beneath the Surface

When I was seventeen, I wasn't sure that I wanted to be confirmed. It was a rough period in my life, and I was having some intense questions and doubts. It upset my mother, understandably. She knew that, at such a pivotal and difficult moment, I needed the grace of the sacrament more than ever. So, she called our priest and asked him to talk to me.

After that meeting, I made the decision to be confirmed.

To be honest, I can't remember anything he said to me. All I remember is that he sat with me. He listened to me. He let me talk and talk and talk (and cry). And when he said whatever he said, whatever it is that I cannot remember, it was obvious that he had listened to me.

Reading today's Gospel, it makes perfect sense that everyone thought John the Baptist was the Messiah. He was the guy pouring the water. Of course it seemed natural that he would be "the one." The one they were all waiting for.

But instead, the Messiah was the man who came to be baptized. He was the one who descended into the waters, submerging himself in our experience of death and pain and sorrow — and in doing so, he sanctified it. He made it a means of redemption.

Jesus is our Savior, yes. When we dig ourselves a hole of sin and confusion and we can't climb out, he is the one who brings us back to the surface. But he doesn't pull us out; he lifts us. He jumps down into the pit. He looks around. He offers his hand, gives us a leg up, and by his strength and not our own, we are brought back into the light.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

At my grandson's Baptism, the priest put a bib on the baby. I do not remember seeing this before. Why is this done? Is it something new?

Answer:

When an adult is baptized, there is a part in the ceremony when the newly baptized is vested in a white garment. It is symbolic of the changes that baptism brings in the life of the baptized as they are freed from the bonds of sin and brought into the saving grace of Christ. Realities that are so profound are symbolically presented so that we might better grasp and understand them.

Infants are often dressed in a baptismal dress, which is the baptismal garment. In some places, the bib is used as a kind of baptismal garment. At the place in the ceremony where the investiture takes place, the bib is used. Some are poncho-like and fit over the baby's head. Others are simply placed on the baby's chest. If the baby is dressed in a white garment, nothing else is needed. The prayer says it all: "See in your white garment the outward sign of your Christian dignity ... bring that dignity unstained into the everlasting life of heaven." In baptism, we are given our purpose and goal in life as believers and this is symbolized by the white garment.

Seminarian Spiritual Adoption

While thankful for a seminarian's desire to intimately serve Christ and his Church, his journey to ordination can be filled with struggles, uncertainty, and hesitation. With the help of the Holy Spirit, the Blessed Mother's powerful intercession and the affirmation and prayers of a dedicated family or individual, the discernor will receive the grace needed to continue their journey,

There are 24 seminarians in our diocese; we would like to ask our parishioners to help us implement the Seminarian Adoption Program. It is not a big commitment, i.e. pray for them, occasionally send them a card and/or an email supporting them as they are on their journey. Maybe a care package if that is something you would like to do.

We plan to begin this program in January 2025, so please prayerfully consider taking part in supporting our Seminarians. More information on this program will be coming in the next weeks.

Food and Fellowship

Join us for a meal that is more than just to satisfy your stomach. It's really about connection and conversation. We offer not only food for the soul but a lovingly cooked meal to satisfy the body as well. It is non-denominational and all are welcome! It doesn't matter where you go to church or where you live.

You can join us. . .and bring a friend. The next Food & Fellowship is on Thursday, January 16 at 5:30 pm in Voland Hall at SS. Peter & Paul. Write it on your calendar now. . . we'd love it if you joined us!

Open House

All are invited to join us at SS. Peter & Paul on Sunday, January 26, 2025 from 11 am—1 pm to get a look at the new boiler and the upgrades that took place during our recent heating project. We can all feel the heat, now see the new boiler that's making it happen. And while you're there, grab lunch.

Chili Lunch

Sunday, January 26, 2025 from 11 am—1 pm. Dine in or to go. Cost is $10.00 adults, ages 4-13 $5.00, ages 3 and under free. The simple meal includes all you can eat bowl of chili (with cheese & sour cream if you like), bread, milk, and a cookie for dessert. Sponsored by the Faith Formation Families & councils.

Divine Savior Auction

The 15th Anniversary Edition of the Divine Savior School Fundraising Auction takes place on Saturday, March 29th at Millhome Supper Club. CASH Raffle tickets are now available at the School Office, and the Rectory Offices of S.S. Peter & Paul and Holy Rosary Parishes. Tickets are $10 each with a top prize of $1500. Check out the Auction website or contact one of the Auction Committee members for more details.

Your involvement and support of Divine Savior School will again help make this event another resounding success.

Lectors – Proclaimers of the Word

Do you like to read stories aloud? We would invite you to become a lector at your parish. Reading is one way to publicly witness to our Faith in answer to our Baptismal call. The lector proclaims the first and second readings of the Mass during the weekend Eucharistic Celebrations and Holy Days. What a great honor and distinction to be called to proclaim His Word! You are not merely a reader, you are a Proclaimer of His Word! There are resources available for you. Please contact your parish office to join.

Scrip

Thank you for your scrip purchases. Let's make 2025 a year when you use scrip to purchase even more than you did last year! Groceries, gas, fast food, anything at Ace to Walmart-if you buy those things, you can use scrip to pay for it. Stop by your church's scrip representatives and buy some scrip today!

Open your heart and home

There's something sweet about arrivals, whether our destination is an exotic vacation spot or the grateful landing at home in a familiar bed. Travel can be exciting or tedious, but in either case the end of the road has its merits in terms of creature comforts and just maybe the embrace of a friend. We can sympathize with the joy and relief of the Magi when their star-guide finally came to a halt over Bethlehem. In the spirit of Epiphany last week, make your home a welcoming place and open your heart to receive each spiritual traveler.

Can You Help?

Christmas decorations will be taken down on January 12th after the 10:00 Baptism of the Lord Mass. Have a few minutes to spare today to help?

Sanctuary Candle

If you wish to have the Sanctuary Candle lit for a week as a way to honor a loved one, contact the parish office. The cost is $20 a week. There are several weeks available: Jan 26, Feb 2, 23, March 29, 16, 23 & April 20.

Wanted

Where do you learn to make ice cream? At sundae school! We are in need of 15 ice cream pails [gallon size] with covers by January 19. Have one or more we can have? Please bring it to the office or you can bring it along to church and leave it on the counter in the church basement kitchen.

Thank You

Who knew? We didn't. Just recently it was suggested to us that we upgrade our defibrillator since it's 10 years old. We are able to do that because of a gift from the family of Ken Stein. Thank you for your generosity.

Bringing it Back!

The Parish Council is looking for some people who would be interested in being part of a social committee at SS. Peter & Paul. They would like to bring some events to our parish that would allow people to socialize and get to know others. Not necessarily fundraisers, but all ideas are welcome. Think you might be interested? Talk to Guy Chollet, council chair. gchollet1957@gmail.com

WEShare On-Line Giving

Venmo is now enabled for our on-line giving. Digital wallets like Apple Pay, Google Pay, Venmo, and PayPal allow users to complete transactions with just a few taps, eliminating the need to enter payment details repeatedly. Go to our website threeparishesonefaith.com, scroll down to the donate now! button, click on the picture of SS. Peter & Paul, and create an account, or log into your account if you already have one and make changes to your payment method.

Mass Intentions

Each year you may offer Mass Intentions for deceased loved ones, living family members, or celebrations such as anniversaries or birthdays. Mass intentions for week-day [Tuesdays] Masses in 2025 are now being accepted. Please email Kim at secretary@sspeternpaul.org, call her at 894-3553, or stop in the SS. Peter & Paul office to schedule your intentions.

Our Sympathy

We offer our sympathy and prayers to the families of Gerald Krupp and Alyce Winkel whose funeral Masses were celebrated here recently. May they find comfort in God's presence and know God holds them close to His heart now and always. May they rest in peace.

Meeting

The Building and Grounds group will meet after mass on January 19.

Poinsettias

If you purchased one of the beautiful poinsettias in memory of a loved one, they are available for you to take home and enjoy. Each poinsettia has a name honoring a loved one, and you can take home the plant with your loved one's name on it. The plants are available after mass today and will be in the family room in back of church for you to pick up if not able to take home today.

Special Thank You

A BIG thank you to everyone who gave gifts to the residents of Caring Hands. Your thoughtfulness and generosity is much appreciated.

Mass Intentions

Each year you may offer Mass Intentions for deceased loved ones, living family members, or celebrations such as anniversaries or birthdays. There are several intention openings for our Thursday morning Masses, starting with January 30, Feb 13 & March 6, 13, 20 & 27.
