The World Is Pregnant

There is a character, Rose of Sharon, in John Steinbeck's Grapes of Wrath who is pregnant with her first child. As her impoverished family migrates from their native Oklahoma to California, Rose of Sharon's all-consuming preoccupation is her unborn child. Everything she eats, every drink she lets pass her lips, every action she takes — none of it is done without thought for the child that is still so small as to make his mother's expectancy barely discernible to the naked eye.

"For Rose of Sharon was pregnant," wrote Steinbeck. "And the world was pregnant to her."

It is the same for us Christians in the Advent season. We can feel a change coming, and the hope of this change consumes us. It shapes our actions and our plans, we feel it in our hearts and in our souls and in our limbs. From the food we eat to the clothing we wear to the words we use, the unseen Child lives and breathes and works in every small part of this blessed season.

Even the commercial clamor that is the secular "Christmas holiday" cannot fully distract us from the holy sense of anticipation we have. We are baptized, and so it is inside of us, this voice that cries out in the desert. When we hear it, we cannot help but listen.

The Virgin is pregnant, and the world is pregnant to us.

"We await new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells." — 2 Peter 3:13

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

The Bible says that Jesus condemned gambling, but I notice that so many parishes have them at festivals and other events. What's correct?

Answer:

Although Jesus speaks of our relationship with material wealth and the very human struggle with greed, the gospels do not include any specific instructions related to gambling. At the same time, the Church is very sensitive to the needs of those who might struggle with an addiction to gambling, and pastoral care should always be offered to those who struggle with this reality in their life.

While it is true that many parish or school communities include gambling or games of chance in festivals and fundraisers (e.g. bingo, roulette, ring tossing, dunking booths, etc.), there is nothing inherently wrong these sorts of events, given they are played fairly and within the limits of reason are not morally objectionable. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us: "Games of chance (card games, etc.) or wagers are not in themselves contrary to justice. They become morally unacceptable when they deprive someone of what is necessary to provide for his needs and those of others" (no. 2413).

As in all things, moderation and a sense of healthy limits should be applied to gambling and games of chance. For those who find themselves living with addiction to gambling, help is available in various 12-step and addiction recovery programs.

Retirement Collection

This weekend our parishes will have the annual collection for Diocesan Priests Retirement and National Retirement Fund for Religious. This will be to benefit two groups of people who have served us faithfully. We will have the opportunity to give to the National Retirement Fund for Religious, which helps our retired sisters, brothers and religious order priests. We also have an opportunity to give to the retirement needs of the senior priests in the Diocese of Green Bay. You may donate to both of these groups, or just to one. Please be as generous as you can.

Advent Reconciliation Service

Our three linked parishes will be hosting a communal celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Thursday, December 14, beginning at 6 pm at St. Ann Parish. The evening will begin with a brief service, followed by time for individual celebration of the sacrament (both screens and face to face available). Several priests will be present. All are invited and welcomed.

Divine Savior

All are invited on December 19 at 6:00 PM in the SS. Peter & Paul Church to watch and listen to the Divine Savior students perform their Christmas concert. Weekday Mass with the Divine Savior students takes place on Tuesdays at 8:30 am at SS. Peter & Paul. All are invited and welcome to come and pray!

Perpetual Adoration Chapel

Have you ever had the thought that maybe you should visit the adoration chapel in Chilton or sign up for a weekly hour? If you have experienced that heavenly nudge, it is not you, but the Holy Spirit calling you.

In this season of giving, why not make Eucharistic Adoration at the top of your holiday list. This is truly a gift to the one who died to save you. Jesus is never outdone in generosity. This is the best gift you will ever give yourself. Please take that step. Call and sign up for an hour with our Lord. You will be happy you did. To do so, call Kathy at 849-9266.

Adoration Invitation – 12 Hours of Adoration

St. John the Baptist & St. Thomas Aquinas Parishes invite you and your family to 12 Hours of Adoration for an Advent opportunity. On Wednesday, December 20, 2023, from 7:00 am – 7:00 pm at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Plymouth. Come and spend time with our Lord in the Eucharist. What a beautiful way to prepare the way for Christmas.
