Summer Reading List

Summer, among other things, is a time to relax with a book. More than any other time of the year, the summer season lends itself to reading fiction and immersing oneself in the literary landscape of a novelist. The Irish writer, Colum McCann is credited to have written that by reading, we become alive in bodies not our own. This was McCann's way of saying that reading expands one's horizon and cultivates empathy as one becomes acquainted with the stories and circumstances of other people.

In reading literature, we discover that, thanks to the human condition and our common humanity, we have more in common than what separates us. Pope Francis agrees with this idea. In a letter written in the summer of 2024 (less than one year before his death), Pope Francis advocated for the greater inclusion of fiction and great literary works in the formation of seminarians. These works provide an excellent education in the fascinating labyrinth that is the human person in their struggles, joys, trials, triumphs, sufferings, desires, hopes and dreams. I dare say that the Pope's recommendation is not just for future priests and religious but should be for all Christians who are called to be life-long disciples. One way to understand this life-long discipleship is to be life-long learners. Therefore reading (including good fiction) is a crucial way to grow and to learn about the Lord's "earth and its fullness, the world and all who dwell in it" (Ps 24: 1).

I have always been convinced that reading a good novel enriches the humanity of the reader. Everyone should read, for example, Abraham Verghese's Cutting for Stone and the Covenant of Water. I will also include the memoir My Own Country: A Doctor's story, by the same author. They are gems of a book: layered, fascinating, a riveting narrative. Another marvel of a book is Ann Patchett's Bel Canto which won the Orange Prize. A surprising discovery (which I realized in retrospect) was how much these literary works drew from the well of faith and the catholic imagination.

In the last year also, these books have expanded my worldview and deepened my appreciation of the beauty of language and the power of stories in cultivating resilience, delight, emotional intelligence and empathy.

Dream Count by the US based Nigerian writer Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie was an education on the societal expectations of women, the nature of feminine hopes and the aspiration to have it all. It was a page turner.

The Underground Railroad and The Nickel Boys, by the twice Pulitzer prize-winning writer, Colson Whitehead, were funny even as they were eye-opening and wise.

The Help by Kathryn Stockett was raucously delightful, hilarious and sobering at the same time.

I have been entertained, enlightened, inspired and challenged by these books and would recommend any of them as a summer reading. Enjoy the summer!

Raising Vocations for Tomorrow,
Our Young People Are Counting on You

A spiritual family needs priests and sisters. That is why the Raising Vocations Collection is so important. By now, you most likely received a letter from Bishop Ricken requesting your help in supporting young men and women on their faith journey. Please return your generous contribution to this collection, using the pledge card and return envelope you received in the mail. A gift of $25, $100, $250, or more will make a huge difference now — and for the future of our Church. Thank you for helping them today, so they may say “yes” to the Lord! Every gift makes a difference. Friends and followers of Jesus support one another! To make your gift today, visit www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give or call Tammy Danz at 920-272-8123. On August 2 & 3, Olivier Ndorimana will speak at our Masses, so we can hear about his journey and how we can help.

Adoration

“Please, make a visit every so often. Just go into your church for a moment and say, “Hi, Jesus, I’m here. I don’t have much to say.” He knows that....He wants our will, our love, our faith, and our trust. Remember now, you have that, you have everything. Every day, whatever church you belong to, he waits in that tabernacle, hoping when that door opens, it’s you.”

—Mother Angelica

From 4—5 pm on Mondays (SS. Peter & Paul) Wednesdays (Holy Rosary) and Fridays (St. Ann) our churches are open for you to come and spend time with Jesus. Make a visit.

Pictorial Directory

Smile! Our last pictorial directory was in 2016 so it’s time to do another. We are looking for four to five people from each of our linked parishes who would like to help coordinate the project. If interested, please call your parish office.

Traveling Rosary for Vocations

Thursday, August 14; 1:00 – 2:30 PM at St. Michael’s Parish Whitelaw; 110 West Menasha Avenue 54247. The Green Bay Diocesan Council of Catholic Women are hosting a prayer event for an increase in priestly and religious vocations. All women and Men are invited. The 2023 Vocation Ministry Analysis of Priestly Vocations states the first pillar to foster vocations is prayer, “Prayer is foundational and essential since vocations are always a gift from God.” The agenda includes song, rosary and litany for vocations, and speakers from Holy Family Convent, Sr. Dolores Herrmann and others. A reception will close out the event. For more info call 920-323-3243 or visit www.gbdcw.org.

Sweet Treat and a Free Gift!

Join us at Cathedral Book and Gift Grand Reopening on August 11-16. Grab a sweet treat, browse for a good book, select the perfect Catholic gift and receive a free gift with your purchase at checkout. Located right behind St. Francis Xavier Cathedral at 131 S. Madison St. in Green Bay.

Eucharistic Adoration: Chapel of Divine Mercy in Chilton

The only time our Lord asked the Apostles for anything was the night when He went into His agony. Out of His anguished and lonely heart came the sigh, ‘Could you not watch one hour with Me?’ He did not plead for activity, but for an hour of friendship. (Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen)

Christ’s heart, looking down from the Sacred Host in the monstrance, is deeply touched by the sight of you sacrificing your time to adore Him. It is Heaven on earth.

Please consider signing up for an hour of adoration. The chapel is always in need of adorers. There is a sub system that makes it very easy when conflicts arise. Your one hour of the week will soon become your best hour.

To sign up for an hour, call Kathy Schneider at 849-9266 or log on to goodshepherdcdm.weadorehim.com

Pie Stand

Thank you to everyone who donated towards our list of supplies for the pie stand. We've got everything covered except for the ice cream, which will be about $600. Watch for a postcard in the mail listing pie/torte drop off times. Sign up sheets are in the narthex for you to help at the stand, during set up and take down and cutting and packaging the desserts.

This is a GIGANTIC UNDERTAKING by our parish, and we need all the help we can get! Students are invited to volunteer, but must be at least 13. Sign up by yourself, with a friend, your spouse, your children, your mom & dad, or even bring your boss. Make it a family affair and get your whole family involved. Everyone can help! It takes many hands!

Bishop's Appeal

Our goal is $44,979 and we are now at 85% or $38,315. The average gift this year is $255, or $21 a month. Please know that every gift is appreciated, no matter the amount. We are assessed the balance of our goal and billed for the unpaid amount if it's not reached. To make a gift to the Bishop's Appeal call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580 ext. 8123 or visit the website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give.

Gifts of the Holy Spirit Rocks

The confirmation candidates painted rocks as a class project when they were learning about the gifts of the Holy Spirit. We put them under the TV in the narthex and there are a few left. Feel free to take one and pray for the candidates as they prepare for confirmation in September. At confirmation, they will receive a special outpouring of the Holy Spirit. This sacrament strengthens and deepens the grace received at Baptism, and it signifies a mature commitment to the Christian faith. Ask God to guide them and walk with them as they take the journey.

Scrip

Is your car getting an oil change or in need of a fix at Vogel's? Did you know they participate in our scrip program? Just write your check to us instead of them and we will pay your bill! It's as easy as that! Since January of this year our scrip program has paid over $15,000 to Vogel's, paying bills for everything from new tires, oil changes, to engine repairs. That's over $750 in rebate back to our scrip program. Thank you to everyone who uses scrip to pay their bill.

Office Computer

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! To the generous donors who covered the cost of my new computer. I'm absolutely tickled pink by your kindness and generosity and I can't thank you enough. May God bless you!

Thanks for your support.
