

Why Choose Divine Savior Catholic School for Your Child's Education

It is that time of year for parents to decide on the direction of their child's educational program. Registration for the 2021-2022 school year begins on February 1. Application and registration materials can be found on the school's website: www.divinesaviorschool.org

A student that attends grades 3K-8 at Divine Savior will have approximately.....

- Received 970 hours in religious instruction (including scripture, morality, theology, church history, prayer and sacraments, saints, and liturgy)
- Participated in at least 324 liturgies
- Received the Sacrament of Reconciliation numerous times
- Participated in over 6,000 prayers and prayer services
- Prayed the Stations of the Cross 54 times
- Participated or attended 18 religious performances
- Received 180 hours of training and instruction in religious music
- Prayed the rosary and attended Marian devotions at least 30 times
- Participated in 10 student retreats
- Shared in at least 40 service opportunities
- Received instruction on mission awareness and social justice

In addition, he/she will be exposed to the integration of religious topics and themes in most academic disciplines. He/she will have been exposed to 11,340 hours of instruction in a religious environment. This environment, including religious symbols, banners, boards, prayer corners, etc. is evident every hour of every day spent in school.
